

Wickford Festival of Lights

It is a Christmas tradition 24 years in the running that thousands of beautiful white lights transform the village of Wickford into a winter wonderland. The streets are bustling with activity and the air is redolent with balsam and Christmas spice. Holiday shopping is as it used to be, unhurried with personal service and unique selections. This year the festival is from Thursday, Dec. 3 to Sunday, Dec. 6.

Thursday, December 3

6 p.m., Town tree lighting and a visit from Santa at Updike Park, Wickford, sponsored by the N.K. Chamber of Commerce kicks off a weekend of festivities and a season of wonder. The North Kingstown Community Youth Chorus and Lafayette Band will perform.

Friday, December 4

5:30 - 6:30 p.m., Holiday display contest winners announced by Channel 10, televised live from the town dock.

5:30 p.m., Santa arrives at the Town Dock aboard The Sea Princess, led by kayaks from the Kayak Centre.

6 - 7:30 p.m., Ongoing live nativity at St. Paul's Church on Main St., performed by the youth groups.

6 - 8 p.m., Hayrides with Santa around the Village, originating in the parking lot by the Town Dock ($2 pp).

6:30 - 7:15 p.m., North Kingstown Community Chorus carols in Updike Park.

7:15 - 8:15 p.m., The Lafayette Band performs its "holiday concert" at First Baptist Church on Main
