around the event. "We are looking forward to the innovative vessels that show up," Powell said.

Four classes of boats will be featured in the event and are described in the official rules as follows: Class 1 – one person, no less, Class 2 – two persons, Class 3 – three persons, Class 4 – four persons and Unlimited Class – unlimited crew. Prizes will be awarded to the first three finishers in each class. Special awards include the "Karl Smith Most Ingenious Design," (dedicated to the regatta's late founder) "Worst Example of Naval Architecture," and the "Frank Newman Judges Award."

Entry forms will be available at various Jamestown businesses beginning Aug. 1. Entry forms are also online at www.jyc.org. Chris Powell will once again play the role of Chief Fool. For more information, call 401-423-1492.
