About Town

Get your tickets for holiday sing

“A Holiday Festival of Song” will be presented by the Jamestown Community Chorus on Saturday, Dec. 10, at 7:30 p.m., and Sunday, Dec. 11, at 3 p.m. at the Central Baptist Church in Jamestown.

General admission tickets cost $10, those for seniors and children cost $6. Tickets are available at Baker’s Pharmacy, Jamestown Hardware, and the Secret Garden in Jamestown, and from chorus members, or at the door. The concert also includes the traditional sing-along and refreshments.

For information, call 423-1574 or visit jamestownri.com/chorus.

Open recreation begins next week

Open Recreation at the Community Center will begin on Monday, Nov. 28, running from 3 to 5 p.m. each weekday until the end of March.

Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays are designated for kids in grades 3 through 5.

Tuesdays and Thursdays are for sixth- through eighth-graders.

This program offers kids a chance to unwind after school and use the Community Center’s basketball court and game tables. No transportation will be provided by the recreation department from the school to the Community Center.

Open Recreation is monitored by recreation department staff, and there is no fee to participate. All that is needed is a completed permission slip which is available at the Community Center.

Holiday entertaining class features chef

The Bay Voyage Inn restaurant, 150 Conanicus Ave. in Jamestown, will host a seminar on Holiday Entertaining and Cooking on Tuesday, Dec. 6, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Executive Chef Michael Civali will teach participants the secrets to planning a holiday meal for family and friends with quick and easy recipes.

Limited to 25 people, the class, which costs $40, will be held by reservation only and include food samplings and wine.

For more information or to make a reservation, call the Bay Voyage 423-2100.
