Why would I want to pre-arrange my funeral?

By pre-planning your funeral, you provide your family with incredible peace of mind - knowing how you want your life to be celebrated and knowing they won't have to worry about how to cover funeral expenses. You also have an opportunity to discuss ahead of time what's important to everyone, so sound decisions can be made. Pre-arrangements can be discussed at any age, and plans can be amended as your preferences or circumstances change. And, we will work with you to create services and ceremonies that will have a special meaning for you and your family.
