Island Realty is pleased to announce that Vicki deAngeli is now a Sales Associate in our Jamestown office.

Vicki and her husband, Michael, a patent attorney, have been living in Jamestown for five years, along with three dogs and a cat. Their son and daughter have both settled in the Midwest after graduating from college. Vicki grew up on the north shore of Long Island, and lived in Philadelphia and Washington, DC, before settling in Jamestown.

Vicki was an accountant for 20 years, working in both the public and private sector. She was also a volunteer for Guiding Eyes for the Blind where she was involved with the training of guide dog puppies and fundraising. For several years after moving to Jamestown, Vicki traveled throughout New England and New York in her capacity as a Puppy Evaluator for Guiding Eyes.

Vicki has been a Girl Scout leader, and was active in her daughter's school, St. Andrew's Episcopal School, in Potomac, MD. She and Michael are members of the Conanicut and Jamestown Yacht Clubs. Michael is a sailor, while Vicki prefers exploring the Bay by power boat or kayak, as well as touring the island on her bicycle.

Vicki has devoted her life to developing relationships with people. She looks forward to combining her business skills and her love of working with people to assist customers and clients to meet their real estate goals in coastal Rhode Island.
