Book group takes up McCullers novel

The Afternoon Book Discussion at the Jamestown library continues on Tuesday, Feb. 14, at 1 p.m. with "The Member of the Wedding" by Carson McCullers.

The group has chosen other titles to be discussed on following dates:

"The Bookseller of Kabul," by Asne Seierstad, on March 14; "Gilead," by Marilynne Robinson, on April 11; and "On Beauty," by Zadie Smith, on May 9.

All of the books can be obtained through the Jamestown library by placing holds on one of the many copies in the state available through the Cooperating Libraries Automated Network, CLAN. The discussions are free and open to the public. For more information, call the library at 423-7280.

Event to raise awareness of teen dating violence

The U.S. Congress has approved a resolution designating the week of Feb. 6-12 National Teen Dating Violence Awareness and Prevention Week.

Join the Women's Resource Center of Newport and Bristol Counties for National Teen Dating Violence Awareness and Prevention Week, Friday Feb. 3, from 7 to 10 p.m. at Jamestown Teen Center, 6 West St.

Ben Carter and James Grande, two University of Rhode Island students, will be performing live music during this event. Both musicians are not only singer/song writers. They are also known for playing the guitar and their alternative/folk-rock style.

Admission and refreshments are free, but the tropical drinks cost $2. This event is sponsored by Students Against Domestic Abuse and Newport County Youth Council. For more information, call Barbara Zammer at 846-5263.

The Women's Resource Center of Newport and Bristol Counties is one of the six member agencies of the Rhode Island Coalition Against Domestic Violence. They provide comprehensive services to families affected by domestic violence. Services provided include an emergency safe home, a 24-hour help line, court advocacy, counseling, community outreach, support groups, children's programs, and prevention through public awareness and education.

Designer to share secrets of design at the library

Jamestown resident Lynda Sutton will give a talk and demonstration at the library entitled "A Journey in Design - from designing quilts to design and styling for national magazines."

Slated for Wednesday, Feb. 8, at 7 p.m., the event is sponsored by the Conanicut Island Art Association.

Following more than two decades as a quilt artist, Sutton expanded her expertise in design to the three dimensional realm of room and area design and enhancement. She has been a freelance field editor, design consultant and stylist for dozens of magazines, including Better Homes & Gardens, BHG Special Interest publications, the Boston Globe Home Section, Country Decorating and Country Almanac, Country Gardens, Ladies Home Journal, L.L. Bean, New England Home, Princess House, Rhode Island Monthly, and Yankee Magazine. In addition, Lynda's work has graced the covers of Beautiful Homes, the Boston Globe, and Country Gardens.

The talk is free and open to the public.
