Plants needed for annual sale

The Quononoquott Garden Club is preparing for its upcoming May 20 plant sale and is looking for gardeners who might have perennials to share with the club for this annual fund-raising event.

There is no digging or labor required of people who want to donate their excess plants. Teams of club members will make an appointment with each homeowner and gently dig up or divide plants under the direction of the gardener.

Call Linda Warner, 423-1278, or Donna Drago, 423-2730, to set up an appointment that will be scheduled between April 19 and early May.
