Weather History

June 22, 1972 - Hurricane Agnes deluged Pennsylvania and New York State with the most costly flood in U.S. history. At Wilkes-Barre, Penn., the dike was breached destroying much of the town. Flooding resulted in 117 deaths and 3.1 billion dollars damage.

June 23, 1944 - Four tornadoes killed 153 people and caused five million dollars damage in Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Maryland. The tornadoes formed during the evening and moved southeast along parallel paths, flattening everything in their way.

Camp opportunities for kids offered

The South Kingstown Parks and Recreation Department is offering nature-themed camps for children this summer.

The Wet-n-Wild nature camp will offer campers a chance to become modern-day explorers, setting off on an adventure to discover the wonders of the natural world. During this five-day camp running from July 24 to July 29, there will be plenty of activities, crafts, and destinations, as well as the opportunity to explore Asa Pond. The camp meets from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. each day and costs $152 for residents of South Kingstown and $162 for non-residents, which includes all busing and entrance fees.

The camp is open to children ages 7 to 12. For more information or to register, call South Kingstown parks and recreation at 789-9301.

There is also a Creature Crafts Camp for children who love animals.

Each day will be packed with of animal-inspired crafts as children learn about a whole world of critters. On the last day, there will be an art show for parents. All participants should be prepared to get messy. The camp will be held at the Tri-Pond Park Nature Center from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., July 18 through July 20. The cost for residents of South Kingstown is $122. For non-residents the cost is $132. All materials are included.

Advance registration is required. Call South Kingstown parks and recreation at 789-9301.
