Recycling efforts rewarded

Town Engineer Mike Gray and Public Works Director Steve Goslee receive a check for $9,167 from Sherry Mulhearn, executive director of Rhode Island Resource Recovery Corp., for exceeding the town's recycling goals for the year. In all, the town recycled some 996 tons of waste, or 24 percent of the town's total waste stream.

Wendy Gladding wrote, "You asked in last week's column 'Who is Frank Beazley and why does he own the front page of the Projo?' Although I don't know Mr. Beazley personally, I admire him. He isn't a famous athlete or a politician or a rock star or a man of steel. Just a Regular Joe who was dealt lousy hand after lousy hand. Did he resort to thievery, violence, welfare or drugs and alcohol? No, Jim, he became an advocate for those who had even less than he has. He lifted himself up by lifting those around him as well. He gives a face to all people who otherwise wouldn't be seen. You really should read the article because it's inspiring. I hope you enjoy it."

So, there! We did read it, that's what prompted the question. Thanks Wendy.

Bev Rudman says if you're going to buy this year's PTO's Entertainment Book you had better do it soon. There are only some 30 remaining to be purchased and are available for $25 at Baker's Pharmacy, Slice of Heaven or both school offices. The PTO gets $5 for every book sold.

Every resident of the island should make an attempt to donate something to the Jamestown Fire Department during its annual fund drive. Send a check to 50 Narragansett Ave.

It's your way of saying, "Thanks."

Boy Scouts of Troop 1 turned out Monday to help the members of the island Rotary Club successfully put on its annual Jamestown Classic bicycle race.

The Scouts directed parking at both school buildings and helped with setup, cleanup and posting information.

Some were assigned toilet paper inventory in the Community Center.

Now, that's starting at the bottom.

We hope some of you caught Peter Mandel's item on page D4 of last Saturday's ProJo entitled "Home of the Brave" no longer."

Happy Columbus Day! Tomorrow is Margaret Thatcher's birthday.

Be true!

Call in your stuff for this column to 423-0383 or 829-2760. You can e-mail us at jtnwalrus@hotmail.com, or drop your items off at the Jamestown Press office.
