Properties to be sold at tax sale tomorrow

By Dotti Farrington

Four properties are set to be auctioned off during the annual tax sale tomorrow, Dec. 15, at 10 a.m. at the town library.

Current property owners may remove their properties from the auction by paying the taxes due on them. Otherwise, they have up to one year to redeem them, the town financial office said this week. Successful bidders must wait a year before the sale becomes final.

Properties due to be sold are listed by owner with approximate amounts of overdue taxes due. They are:

- Philip K. Burton, 35 Top O' The Mark Drive, $6,300, house included.

- Richard & Joan Johnston, Lot 251, Mast Street, $2,000, land only.

- Robert F. Keough Jr., 9 North Bayview Drive, $5,200, house included.

- L. Brayton Foundry Building Co., Lot 115, Stern Street, $2,000, land only.

Experience has shown that most owners redeem their properties by payment of the taxes, according to the financial office.

Meetings to begin one hour earlier

Beginning Jan. 16, 2007, the Board of Water and Sewer Commissioners will begin their meetings at 6 p.m. at the Jamestown library, 26 North Main Rd.

The Town Council sitting as the Board of Water and Sewer Commissioners meets on the third Monday of each month. In the event of a holiday on the third Monday, the commission will meet on the Tuesday of that week.

This change in time will only affect the meetings of the Board of Water and Sewer Commissioners. Any questions regarding the change in the meeting time should be directed to the town clerk at 423-7200.

Sunday Knitting

Circle at the library

The next Sunday Knitting Circle at the Jamestown library will take place on Dec. 17 from 1 to 3 p.m.

The Sunday sessions are free and open to all levels of expertise. Participants should bring their own needles and yarn. Knitting will take place in the children's area of the library.

For more information about the library's programs visit the library at 26 North Rd., call 423-7280, or look at its calendar of events on its Web site, <http://www.jamestownri.com/library/>.
