Sing-along at the library

The Jamestown library's Children's Department will present a sing-along for babies, preschoolers and their caregivers with Kathy Fitzgerald on Wednesday, Dec. 20, at 10:30 a.m.

This free program will be held in the library's meeting hall at 26 North Main Rd.

There will be no story hours during the week of Dec. 18.

Guitarist Kathy Fitzgerald is a Jamestown resident, author, and librarian. She has an excellent repertoire of songs for children in both English and Spanish. Registration is not necessary for this free program.

For more information on children's programming, see the library's events calendar at www.jamestownri.com/library/.

Aine Minogue to play in Portsmouth

Common Fence Music presents award-winning Celtic harpist Aine Minogue's annual winter solstice concert on Saturday, Dec. 23, at 8 p.m.

The performance will take place at the Common Fence Point Community Hall, 933 Anthony Rd. in Portsmouth. Tickets cost $18 and are available at the CFM Ticket Desk from 3 to 5 p.m. on concert days, through Ticket Web anytime, and at the door until sold out.

Call Ticket Web's toll-free number at 866-468-7619. To leave a message and for general information, including directions to the hall, call 683-5085 or visit the Web site.

Vacation week puppet show at library

Join in the fun as Sparky's Puppets perform "Stories from Snowy Lands" at the Jamestown library meeting hall on Thursday, Dec. 28, at 2 p.m.

Watch Jack Frost's magic bring a snowman to life. Find out what happens when a boastful bear goes ice fishing, and visit a hard-working shoemaker in his shop on a cold winter's day.

Sparky's Puppets dramatize favorite children's stories with colorful hand puppets, lively humor, and plenty of audience participation. They have performed in schools, libraries and festivals throughout New England for over 25 years.

Sponsored by the Friends of Jamestown Philomenian Library, registration is not required for this free program. The library is located at 26 North Main Rd.

The Tradition of the Pineapple

The pineapple is a traditional American symbol of hospitality. During colonial times, sea captains arriving home brought back the tropical fruit from exotic locations. As a sign of their safe return and to welcome guests they placed a pineapple on their gate or door. In time, people began carving pineapple designs into their doorways and gateposts. Pineapple are still given today as a symbol of friendship and welcome!!
