Seal watch tours continue

Come and see the area's cutest furry visitors in their winter playground aboard the M/V Alletta Morris for an up-close look at the seals of Narragansett Bay.

Each cruise includes a lecture by an expert guide and binoculars will be provided.

Upcoming cruises will run on Saturday, Dec. 16, at 10 a.m.; Sunday, Dec. 17, at 10 a.m.; Saturday, Dec. 23, at 1:30 p.m.; Thursday, Dec. 28, at 10 a.m.; Friday, Dec., 29 at 10 a.m.; Saturday, Dec. 30, at 10 and 11 a.m.; and Sunday, Dec. 31, at 10 and 11 a.m.

Saturday and Sunday cruises are two-hour trips that include a stop at the Rose Island Lighthouse. Tours run on weekends and school vacation days through April 29. The full season schedule is available at www.savebay.org.

Regular tickets cost $20 per person. Members of Save The Bay and Rose Island Lighthouse Foundation, seniors, and children ages 6 through 12 receive a $5 discount. Reservations are recommended and can be made by calling 324-6020.

Island girl will play Scrooge

The students enrolled in the drama program at St. Michael's Country Day School will be presenting Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" on Saturday, Dec. 9, at 7 p.m. in the Hill Arts and Athletics Center. Eighth-grader Mandi Thran of Jamestown will have the title role of the penny-pinching curmudgeon whose past comes back to haunt her as she tries to get some shut-eye on Christmas Eve. With the exception of two first-graders, who will appear in cameo roles as "Hunger" and "Ignorance," the rest of the cast will be from the sixth-through eighth-grades' drama class.

The performance is free and open to the public. The production is under the direction of Christina Johnston, head of St. Michael's drama department. Set design is by

For information, call Christina Johnston at 849-5970, ext. 330.

Holiday card-making workshop today

The Jamestown library is offering a holiday card- and ornament-making workshop for kids ages 5 to 14 and their families this afternoon, Thursday, Dec. 7, from 3:30 to 4:45 p.m.

Construction paper, glue, crayons and other found and recycled materials, will be supplied. Come with ideas, family photographs, old holiday cards and whatever materials that would look good as part of a holiday greeting card or ornament.

This free event will take place in the library meeting hall.

Anime club sets new schedule

The Jamestown library's Anime Club for teens has set new meeting times. It will now meet every second and fourth Tuesday of the month at 7 p.m. The next two meetings will be held on Dec. 12 and Dec. 26.

The group views and discusses Japanese anime films and is free and open to all teens.

Registration is not necessary. For more information, call Rowena Burke, the children's and young adults' librarian, at 423-7283.
