This concert features light-fare music that the entire family will enjoy. Families are encouraged to attend.

Tickets may be purchased in advance by contacting any chorister member or by purchasing them at the door. Tickets are $6 for adults, $4 for senior citizens and children under 12 years of age, and $15 for families.

Learn about heirloom plants

A free lecture on heirloom plants in New England will be presented Saturday, Feb. 24, at 10 a.m. in the auditorium of the Coastal Institute on the main University of Rhode Island campus.

"History Alive: Heirloom Plants of Early New England," an illustrated talk, will be given by John Forti, curator of historic landscapes at Strawberry Banke Museum in Portsmouth, N.H.

The lecture is free but because of the limited capacity of the auditorium, those who wish to attend must contact Beverly O'Keefe, MGA Advance Education coordinator, at ladyship@verizon.net. Registration will be taken on a first-come, first-served basis. The Coastal Institute is located on Greenhouse Road, opposite the URI greenhouse complex.

Cave paintings to be talk topic

"Tens of Thousands of Years-Old Cave Paintings" will be the topic of "Lunch with the Artist" on Tuesday, Feb. 20, at the Newport Art Museum.

The informal noontime discussion will be facilitated by Richard Tyre, a Jamestown resident. Although the program is free for museum members; there is a $3 charge for nonmembers. "Lunch with the Artist" discussions take place on the third Tuesday of each month.

The museum provides coffee for each meeting of "Lunch with the Artist;" bag lunches are welcome. For more information about this and other Newport Art Museum programs, call the museum at 848-8200 for more information or go to www.newportartmuseum.com.
