Join the library Friends

Check this week's issue of the Jamestown Press for your Friends of the Jamestown Library membership form.

The Friends' membership benefits include free admission to the annual book sale preview, first option for Cinco de Mayo tickets (a sellout every time), prior program notification, and satisfaction in supporting quality library programs.

The Friends of the Jamestown Library provided more than 30 programs this year, in addition to all the children's programs, including summer reading program costs. Membership contributions are two-thirds of their budget. Other fund-raising activities and donations make up the rest.

The new membership year gets underway June 1. Current members will receive a form in the mail, with additional copies available around town and at the library. The Friends of the Jamestown Library urge everyone to join the Friends and support excellent community programs in the library for Jamestown.

LOST DOG

We have been trying to capture our lost Chocolate Labrador Retriever, Anita Marie, for eight weeks and are asking for your assistance. Anita is extremely shy and fearful of humans. She is thin and weighs approximately 50 pounds.

In the Jamestown Shores neighborhood, there are a series of humane dog traps set up for her capture.

We are asking people to NOT LEAVE OUT FOOD as this interferes with our efforts to catch her. Although the intention of leaving out food is a good one, it inhibits our ability to bring her back into a safe environment.

If seen, please do not chase her. She will run away. Please call Justin McAloon at 401-529-7052 with any sightings, day or night. Thank you.
