Register for summer reading program

Jamestown Philomenian Library invites young readers to solve the mystery of boredom during their annual summer reading extravaganza. The library's summer reading program, "Get a Clue @ Your Library," is a free celebration of reading, which includes a creative writing class, morning and evening story hours, entertainment, and activities.

The program is open to young people from preschool through young adult. Families are invited to join the Read-to-Me portion of the program. Young adults grade 6 and up, are invited to join their own program, "007: Licensed to Read."

Independent readers will be given journals to write about the books they are reading, new words they have learned, their summer activities and ideas of all kinds.

Registration for the Summer Reading Program begins on Tuesday, May 29, and continues throughout the summer.

The Summer Reading Program is sponsored by the Friends of Jamestown Philomenian Library, the RI Office of Library and Information Services, the Institute of Museum and Library Services, McDonald's Restaurants of Rhode Island and the Citizens Bank Foundation.

Visit the library for free computer help

The Jamestown library is pleased to announce a computer assistance program to members of the Jamestown community.

On Tuesday mornings from 10 a.m. to 12 p.m., beginning Tuesday, May 29, Robert Edgar and Robert Umbenhauer, two retired information technology specialists, will be available at the library to provide help with questions regarding home computers.

From basic information on getting started with a computer, signing up for an e-mail account to downloading software, these two volunteers can guide computer users through most problems. The service is on a first-come, first serve basis and is free and open to the public.

For more information, call the library at 423-7280.

Bridge-the-gap fund to hold plant sale

The annual plant sale for the Jamestown Medical Fund will be on Saturday, May 26, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at East Ferry.

There will be flats of annuals, along with colorful hanging baskets and containers.

The fund was created to help those in the community "bridge the gap" when medical expenses vital to their health exceed their ability to pay.

The focus is to help those Jamestown residents cover medical expenses related to an injury or illness their insurance or personal resources fail to cover.

Residents who need help are encouraged to apply. Applications are available at Baker's Pharmacy, Jamestown Family Practice, or by writing the JMF at P.O. Box 236.

Grange elects new officers

The regular meeting of Newport County Pomona Grange was held on May 12 at Kickimuit Grange.

A delicious ham supper was served.

The grange honored Jamestown resident Charlotte Richardson for all her volunteer work, both in an out of the grange. She received two certificates, one from the National Grange and one from Newport County Pomona Grange and a basket of fruit. Election of officers was held with the following being elected for two years:

Master, Jeannette Kenyon; Overseer, George Towle; Lecturer, John Kenyon, Jr.; Steward, Henry Boyer; Lady Asst. Steward, Norma Elwell; Asst. Steward, Walter C. Elwell; Chaplain, Joan Oliveria; Treasurer, Scott Sherman; Secretary, Karen Miller; Gatekeeper, Germaine Bishal; Ceres, M. Frances Towle; Pomona, Kathy Boyer; Flora, Evelyn Ledger; Ex. Comm. 3 yr., Aurea Gutowski; and Ex. Comm. 1 yr., Juliette Miller.

The next regular meeting of Newport County Pomona #4 will be held jointly with Washington County Pomona at the Washington County Fair Grounds in Richmond on Saturday, June 9, at 2 p.m. The Providence County Pomona visits. There will be entertainment and a picnic to follow the meeting.
