New question on the Press Web site

There's a new public opinion question this week at www.jamestownpress.com.

Readers may vote on whether the Financial Town Meeting should be abolished.

The previous question "Where do you think the new highway garage should be built?" had the following responses:

- 70 people voted for "Lot 47/48."
- 25 people voted for "Adjacent to the Newport Bridge."
- One person voted for "Off the island."

Advance advertising deadlines for Jamestown Press Fourth of July issue

Our nation's Independence Day — the Fourth of July — falls on a Wednesday this year. The mid-week holiday will mean that the Jamestown Press will be published two days earlier than normal.

Look for your copy of the Press on Tuesday, July 3. As usual, the Press will be mailed to every home in Jamestown and will be distributed free throughout the island and adjacent communities.

Here are the deadlines for the early publishing schedule:

Display Advertising 5 p.m. on Thursday, June 28

Classified Advertising Noon on Friday, June 29

News Items, Letters Noon on Friday, June 29

Plan now to get your advertising and news to the Jamestown Press early in order to be in the Fourth of July issue.

Beach stickers now on sale

Beach stickers for entry into Mackerel Cove beach and Ft. Getty are not available at the Town Hall.

Stickers can only be purchased at Mackerel Cove beach, the gate house at Ft. Getty or the recreation center, at 41 Conanicus Ave., from 9 a.m. to noon.

For the record

In the May 24 article about graphic artist Jason Hamel, the Tall Ships photographer was misidentified as Clint Clemens. The photographer of the ships is Thad Koza.
