Call to be part of 350th parade

Anyone interested in participating in the 350th Celebration Parade in August, should contact Ed Morinho at 423-1784 or Jim McLoughlin at 423-0814.

Every organization that would like to put together a float or walk in a group is welcome to participate.

Café fund-raiser this Sunday

The Narragansett Café is sponsoring a "Taste of Jamestown," event to benefit longtime doorman Phil Hunt, who has been diagnosed with cancer.

To help support Hunt through his long and expensive journey, everyone is invited to an afternoon of food, music and fun on Sunday, June 24, from 3 to 7 p.m.

The Irish band Garda will be performing and there will be a buffet and raffle items. Tickets are $30 and available at the cafe. For those who want to just enjoy the music, admission is by donation.

Restaurants are asked to supply a signature dish and a person to staff the buffet. Businesses are needed to provide raffle prizes and donations, which can be dropped off at the Narragansett Cafe.

For more information or to schedule participation, call Pam at 741-0626.
