Keith Munslow performs tomorrow

Tomorrow, Friday, June 22 at 3 p.m. at the Jamestown library, children ages four years and older are invited to come to a performance by Keith Munslow.

"It's A Mystery to Me!" is the newest show by Munslow, a Rhode Island favorite. His performance will be a crowd pleaser, guaranteed to cause laughter in children and grownups alike. In his one-of-a-kind, triple-whammy show, Munslow delivers fun, funky music, hilarious stories, and lightning-fast cartooning to the stage. He has a few new tricks up his sleeve, so do not miss this show.

Registration is not required for this free, 45-minute performance. Come early and sign up for the summer reading program.

The summer reading Program is sponsored by the Friends of Jamestown Philomenian Library, the RI Office of Library and Information Services, the Institute of Museum and Library Services, McDonald's Restaurants of Rhode Island and the Citizens Bank Foundation.

View ships from Rose Island

Tickets are still available to watch the Tall Ships parade of sail from the Rose Island Lighthouse.

"This is one of the finest sites to see the Parade of Sail and we still have some tickets available for this day-long event at the Rose Island Lighthouse," said Charlotte Johnson, executive director of the foundation that benefits from the event. Tickets, at $220 for adults and $195 for RILF members, include transportation to Rose Island Lighthouse, breakfast, a pig roast lunch, entertainment, games and souvenirs. Children ages 4 to 12 are $55 and those 3 and under are free.

The deadline to order tickets is tomorrow, June 22. For more information, call 847-4242.

Church festival this weekend

Central Baptist Church will hold a June Festival this Saturday, June 23, from 9 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Both live and silent auctions, vintage items, white elephants, a mini flea market, garden perennials, jewelry, craft supplies, and a mix of media will be available. Enjoy chowder, hamburgers, hot dogs and strawberry shortcake for lunch. Children can have their face painted and also seek treasures from the kid's mart.

The festival will be a fun day for the entire family.

Shores group to meet June 27

The Jamestown Shores Association will hold its June meeting on Wednesday, June 27, at the Jamestown Senior Center, 6 West Street at 7 p.m.

Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend. Coffee and dessert will be served.

For more information, call Charlotte Zarlengo, president, at 423-3518.

Advance advertising deadlines for Jamestown Press Fourth of July issue

Our nation's Independence Day — the Fourth of July — falls on a Wednesday this year. The mid-week holiday will mean that the Jamestown Press will be published two days earlier than normal.

Look for your copy of the Press on Tuesday, July 3. As usual, the Press will be mailed to every home in Jamestown and will be distributed free throughout the island and adjacent communities.

Here are the deadlines for the early publishing schedule:

Display Advertising - 5 p.m. on Thursday, June 28

Classified Advertising - Noon on Friday, June 29

News Items, Letters - Noon on Friday, June 29

Plan now to get your advertising and news to the Jamestown Press early in order to be in the Fourth of July issue.

'Webspinner' to tell her tales

Storyteller Charlotte Hamlin will perform "Is it TRUE? Is it REALLY True? Find out at your library!" on Wednesday, June 27, at 10:30 a.m., for children ages four years and older and their families.

Hamlin shares amazing stories from around the world about people, animals and events that may or may not be entirely true. With the assistance of her puppet friend, "Clara Clacker," colorful hats and participatory songs, she engages audiences with stories of remarkable events that will encourage children to check out the facts at the library to see if the story is really true. Did a young Viking princess really become a pirate almost a thousand years ago? Can dreams really turn to gold? Can children be heroes? Go hear Charlotte "Webspinner" and find out.

Registration is not required for this free, 45-minute performance, which is part of the summer reading program, "Get a Clue @ Your Library."
