Singer and song composer Garry Foisy

Newcomer to island music performs Sunday

Summer music in Jamestown continues Sunday, Aug. 5, at 6:30 p.m., with Garry Foisy, who will make his Jamestown debut.

Co-sponsored by Meagher Design and Island Realty, Garry Foisy is a singer-songwriter acoustic guitarist, with a strong personal style and a keen passion for vocals, harmony and meaningful lyrics. Garry has been playing, writing and performing throughout the New England area for over 20 years. A member of the Rhode Island Songwriters Association, he has been exploring acoustic venues that cater toward singer/songwriter original music and is performing as a featured artist in concert auditoriums, cafés and coffee shops throughout New England.

With a writing style that is reflective and that captures life situations, songs like "The Root Grows Deep," "Eli," and "From the Heart," are true stand outs and sing of family, growing up, and what's truly important. Come join the fun on at the East Ferry Memorial Square for the free concert.

Bring beach chairs or blankets, and in case of inclement weather, the show will go on across the street in the recreation center.

Songs and stories at the library tonight

Tonight, Thursday, Aug. 2, at 7 p.m., the Jamestown library invites children ages 4 years and over to come with their families to a performance by musician and music teacher Greg Cooney.

Cooney uses songs and stories that will get the audience up and involved with the performance. Music is a mystery. What makes us tap our toes and sing along? During the show, Cooney introduces fun facts about how music is made.

The show will begin with a few songs and stories, but will quickly move into musical action. Cooney performs a musical "show and tell" of instruments made from items not normally used for music making: PVC pipes, wrenches, plastic drink bottles, and things found in the kitchen sink.

Registration is not required for this free, 45-minute performance.

This program is part of the Summer Reading Program, "Get a Clue @ Your Library," and is sponsored by the Friends of Jamestown Philomenian Library, the RI Office of Library and Information Services, the Institute of Museum and Library Services, McDonald's Restaurants of Rhode Island and the Citizens Bank Foundation.

Gift store hosts party tonight

Askham & Telham, the home accessories and gift store at 12 Main St. in Wickford, is having a birthday party tonight, Aug. 2, to celebrate 20 years in business.

Featured music for the occasion is jazz duo Steve Ryba and Tom Casale. Cindy Easdon invites all of her customers to come and enjoy refreshments and listen to some great music as a thank you to everyone for all of their support over the years. The event, which is free and open to the public, runs from 5:30 to 8 p.m.

Bowl making sessions scheduled

Three sessions for making bowls to be used in this fall's Empty Bowls fund-raising event, have been scheduled for August.

The sessions will be on Wednesdays, Aug. 8, 15, and 22 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Melrose Avenue School art room.

Help make bowls to benefit local food banks. This will be a fun event for all. For more information, call Julia 423-0322.
