gaily-colored note tucked under the wiper blades.

"Could this be a new 'stealth' approach to parking control? Certainly the visible presence of a uniformed officer strolling about might warn potential perpetrators not to tarry beyond the posted limit...Or not - who knows?"

"Then again, perhaps this is simply a creative example of outsourcing - so popular these days...Or a sort of gender-varied version of the role often played in urban settings by the famous 'Meter Maids' of yore.

"Come to think of it, maybe our friend in casual, Jamestown-appropriate mufti should remain anonymous. We're all too familiar with the unfortunate flap that followed the recent 'outing,' -- by another famous journalist -- of a formerly covert government operative.

"Yeah...best to just let it go. But thanks anyway."

It's too late now Joe, we'll have to go underground in mufti with tropical shirts, long black socks and sandals and mix in with the tourist crowds.

Tuesday is V-J Day, marking the date that ended World War II.
