Pauline F. Broad, 100

Pauline F. (Trask) Broad, 100, a resident of St. Clare Home in Newport, formerly of Pemberton Apartments in Jamestown, died

Monday, Aug. 27, 2007, at Newport Hospital.

She was the wife of the late Eric O. Broad.

Born in Spencer, Mass. on Aug. 16, 1907, she was the daughter of the late Albert and Carrie (Wiswell) Trask.

Mrs. Broad began working in the textile mill industry at the age of 14 and worked at various mills in the Woonsocket area. She and her husband, Eric, retired to Jamestown in 1974.

She is survived by her son, Donald J. Dupre of Jamestown, two grandsons, Michael B. Dupre of Jamestown, and Scott E. Dupre of Westerly, two great-granddaughters, Monique Dupre of Fall River, and Jillian Carmichael of Vermont, and her extended family at St. Clare Home in Newport who provided such warm and loving care.

She was the grandmother of the late Donald J. Dupre and the sister of the late Harry Trask.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory may be made to St. Clare Home, 309 Spring Street, Newport, RI 02840.

Arrangements were by Memorial Funeral Home, 375 Broadway, Newport.

Robin E. D'Abrosca, 54

Robin E. D'Abrosca, 54, of Jamestown, died Sunday, September 2, 2007 at Newport Hospital. She was the wife of Louis D'Abrosca for nine years.

Born in Providence, she was a daughter of the late Robert and Isabel (Patton) Spinney. Mrs. D'Abrosca was a waitress at Cowesett Inn in West Warwick for five years before her retirement. She volunteered for the Jamestown Medical Fund and was active in many civic functions. Mrs. D'Abrosca was an avid gardener, enjoyed flowers and animals, especially her two cats Bianco and Fellini.

Besides her husband, she is survived by one brother, Robert Spinney of Cranston and three sisters, Linda Welsh of Pawtucket, Lori Miskiv of Pittsburgh, Pa. and Debra Spinney of Cranston. She is also survived by several nieces and nephews.

The funeral will be from the Nardolillo Funeral Home, South County Chapel, 1111 Boston Neck Road, Narragansett, Route 1A, on Friday, Sept. 8, at 9 a.m. followed by a Mass of Christian Burial at 10 a.m. in St. Marks Church, 60 Narragansett Ave., Jamestown. Burial will be in Cedar Cemetery, Jamestown.

Calling hours are tonight, Thursday, Sept. 6, from 4 to 8 p.m. Contributions in her memory may be made to the Jamestown Medical Fund, P.O. Box 236, Jamestown, RI 02835.

Ruth Van Slyck, 77

Ruth "Mali" Van Slyck, 77, of Middletown, died peacefully at home on Aug. 28, 2007, after a long illness, which she fought courageously every step of the way.

Born on October 27, 1929, in Plymouth, Mass., she developed a wildly creative imagination and dreamed of world travel. She spent years living in Asia studying their traditions and embracing Buddhism, but ultimately she was happiest in Newport and considered it home.

She is survived by five children, Toby White, Alex White, Kate Van Slyck, Ashley Schofield and Nick Van Slyck, as well as 10 grandchildren, all of whom will miss her. She also leaves behind her close friend and companion, Connie Heird.

Because of Ruth's interest in international issues and her compassion for those in need, the family requests that in lieu of flowers, a donation be made to Doctors Without Borders (www.doctorswithoutborders.org).

A memorial service will follow at a later date.

Arrangements were by Memorial Funeral Home, 375 Broadway, Newport.

A FAMILY THAT HAS SERVED LOCAL FAMILIES FOR 4 GENERATIONS... STILL IS.

"Our family has been a part of the Rhode Island community for over 90 years, so we know what a special place it is. As caring neighbors and close advisors, we have always been there for families through difficult times. We are committed to providing the very best service before, during, and after the funeral."
