Finances for women at URI

The University of Rhode Island Women's Council for Development will hold a "Financial Makeover" for recent alumnae and female juniors and seniors at the university.

The event will be held Monday, Nov. 5, at 5 p.m. in the URI Alumni Center, 73 Upper College Rd.

Guest speakers Professor Joan Gray Anderson, director of the Center for Personal Financial Education at URI, and Lisa Ferns, a career advisor at URI Career Services, will offer tips on networking.

In addition, a panel of alumnae professionals will share their expertise in controlling debt, insurance, budgeting, and investing.

Guests will receive a free gift at the end of the evening and have the opportunity to win a Marc Jacobs handbag.

There is no charge to attend, RSVPs are required and can be made by contacting Jessie Kenyon in the URI Alumni Relations Office at 874-4853, or by email at jkenyon@advance.uri.edu.
