

Obituaries

Roger C. Vaughn, 90

Roger C. Vaughn, 90, died Nov. 16, 2007 of renal failure. He was the husband of Mary Frances "Friday" Lyons.

Born in Cuba, Mo., he was a retired Navy commander and former college math instructor.

A 1935 graduate of Cuba High School, he attended the University of Missouri and graduated from the U.S. Naval Academy in 1940.

He served in World War II and the Korean War and retired from the Navy.

He spent his summers in Jamestown and will be buried in St. Matthew's Memorial Garden.

He is survived by his son, Roger Vaughn Jr., sisters, Gwen Bauer, Marjorie Bleckman, a brother, Douglas Vaughn, as well as many nieces and nephews.

Services will be held at the convenience of the family.

Florence Elva Wirth, 89

Florence Elva (Buffinton) Wirth, 89, of Cranston, died at Brentwood Nursing Home on Nov. 13, 2007.

She was the wife of the late William S. Wirth.

She was a 10th generation descendent of Roger Williams. She had been a longtime employee of the City of Cranston and previously served as secretary at Wodridge Congregational Church in Cranston. She was a member and past regent of the Pettasquamscutt Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, a member of the Roger Williams Family Association and former treasurer of both the 1918 Club and Cranston Veterans Scholarship Fund.

She is survived by her son, Stephen B. Wirth, and wife, Marcia (Pierce), of Jamestown, daughter, Linda J. Fiocchi, and husband Richard, of Coventry, four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Lucille Parson and Helen Morris.

A Memorial Service will be held on Friday, Nov. 23, at 2 p.m. in St. David's on the Hill Episcopal Church, Cranston.

Janet Davis Callahan, 87

Janet Davis Callahan, 87, of Jupiter, Fla. and Jamestown, died Nov. 5, 2007 at Palm Beach Gardens Medical Center Hospice following a brief illness.

Born on July 22, 1920 in Springfield, Mass., she moved to the Jupiter area in 1985. She was a former resident of West Hartford, Conn.

She was a member of the Jupiter First Church and the Wellesley Club of the Palm Beaches. She was a lifelong Republican party activist and was a philanthropist, giving her time and energy, politically, socially and economically. She was preceded in death by her husband Roger E. Callahan. She was a longtime summer resident of Jamestown, living in the Fairview Street cottage originally purchased by her grandfather in the 1880s.

Survivors include three children, Joan C. Beaulieu and Davis Callahan, both of Florida, and Bruce W. Callahan of New Hampshire, two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Private family services were held in Jupiter. Memorial donations can be made to Hospice of Palm Beach County, 530 East Ave., West Palm Beach, FL 33407, or Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, 4700 North Congress Ave., West Palm Beach, FL 33407.

Service offered in East Greenwich for all who have lost loved ones

For those who have lost a loved one, the holiday season can be especially difficult. In acknowledgement of that, Christ Church in East Greenwich will be having a Service of Remembrance on Tuesday, Dec. 4, at 7 p.m. for loved ones who have died.

The service will be an informal and meditative service of worship, with music, candle lighting, and reflection to help for approaching the holidays. Led by the pastoral staff and the grief support team of Christ Church, the service is open to anyone needing God's healing and hope.

A time of refreshments and community will follow. The church is located at 1025 Main St. in East Greenwich at the corner of Post Road and Cedar Avenue. For more information, call 884-8632.
