Ludlow Ford, 94

Ludlow Campbell Boyd Ford, 94, adored and adoring wife of the late Norbert Martin Ford, died peacefully on Sunday, Dec. 2, a few weeks after her birthday.

Luddie, the daughter of Lillie Day Campbell and John J. Boyd, was born in South Orange, N.J. Luddie's life was filled with many adventures and experiences. She worked for Bamberger's in Newark and Macy's in New York City, first in sales and then as a jewelry buyer. Luddie volunteered as a nursing aide during World War II while Norb served as an infantry officer in Europe. After the war they started Hill Hollow Farm (a mail order business) and her mustard was served at L'Aiglon in New York City until she and Norb moved overseas. Their years in Bermuda and Ireland where she resided until June 2006, were filled with great happiness and loving friendships. She was a member of the Royal George Yacht Club in Dun Laoghaire, Ireland and The Royal Dublin Society in Ballsbridge, Ireland.

She leaves her son, Andrew Elwood Ford, and grandson, Jared Martin Ford; her daughter, Carol Ford Corey and her husband Walter, and his sister, Felicity Mead. The children of Carol and Walter: Anne Campbell Roy Leape and her husband, Tim, Geoffrey Carson Roy and Robert L. Roy III, and Britta Corey Lago and Neil T. Corey. Luddie and Norb had a son Robert Campbell Ford who died in infancy. She also leaves a nephew, Stephen H. Plum, and his wife, Hazel, of Austin, Texas, and Elizabeth B. Plum of Whitehouse Station, N.J. and their families.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the Arthritis Foundation, or a charity of your choice. A memorial service will be held in May 2008. The date and place will be announced.

Marianne Schoenebeck, 95

Marianne Schoenebeck, 95, of Jamestown, passed away at the John Clarke Nursing Center on Dec. 19, 2007. She was born in Moenchen-Gladbach, Germany on Feb. 4, 1912. She was the wife of the late F. W. Hugo Schoenebeck.

She is survived by her three daughters, Sabine Dinsmoor and husband William of Anacortes, Wash., Sigrid Gallagher-Schoenebeck of Bristol and Marie-Luise Hedberg and husband Gregory B. of Jamestown. She was the beloved grandmother of Irina Couch of Coquille, Ore., Jessica and Yuri Verniers of Belgium and Jesse and Dustin Hedberg of Jamestown. She was the mother-in-law of the late Gerald M. Gallagher. She is also survived by seven great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Marianne graduated from nursing school in Magdeburg, Germany in 1932. She was married in Berlin in 1939. After raising her family she went to work for the Bausparkasse in Schwaebisch Hall, Germany in the mortgage department. She retired in 1974 and lived for the next 21 years in Limelette, Belgium. In 1995, she moved to America to be near her daughters in Jamestown.

She was an avid reader, had a passion for politics and poetry, and loved to travel but was most happy spending time with her family. A celebration of Marianne's life will be announced at a later date. Burial will be private.

In lieu of flowers, donations in her memory may be made to the John Clarke Nursing Center Activity Fund, 600 Valley Rd, Middletown, RI, 02842. Arrangements are with the O'Neill-Hayes Funeral Home, 465 Spring St., Newport. For more information, visit online www.onhfh.com
