

Learn about support for family caregivers

Tonight — Thursday, Feb. 22 — at 7 p.m., the Friends of the Jamestown Library will present Valerie Topp, director of operations at Home Instead Senior Care.

Becoming a caregiver often catches people by surprise. What resources can be used to aid in the decision making process as they care for a family member? What supports are available to families on this journey? Where do they begin?

Valerie Topp will answer those questions and more at the Jamestown library. Family caregivers are welcome. Educational materials will be provided.

About town

The program is free and open to the public. For more information, call the library at 423-7280.

Central Baptist to explore suffering

Songs from "Yours, Anne," a musical adaptation of "The Diary of Anne Frank," will open a six-week exploration of suffering at Central Baptist Church.

The musical selections will combine with readings and stories during the congregation's worship service at 9:30 a.m. on Sunday, Feb. 25.

Cast members from the Jamestown Community Theater's production of this moving and sensitive musical will perform during the service, which will mark the first Sunday of Lent.

Central Baptist will continue to explore suffering throughout the Lenten season. Sunday mornings will feature a sermon series—"Journey of the Heart"—that will focus on various aspects of the Christian journey, including suffering. The congregation will also offer a discussion series on making sense of suffering in today's world at 7 p.m. on the last four Thursdays in March. The series, as well as the worship services, is open to everyone.

For more information, call Kathryn Palen, pastor, at 423-1651.

Mother Goose resumes in March

Mother Goose Time for Babies will not be held on Monday, Feb. 26. Mother Goose Times will resume at the library on Monday, March 5, at 11:15 a.m.

For infants and babies up through 24 months old with their caregivers, Mother Goose Times are held on Monday mornings from 11:15 to 11:45 a.m. Featured activities are nursery rhymes, finger games, music, and board books.

Registration is not necessary for these free programs, which all take place in the children's room.

Annual Spay Day drawing slated

Cat spraying the furniture? Dog looking for the love of his life despite the leash law? The Humane Society of Jamestown has a solution — the annual Spay Day drawing.

This drawing will enable several lucky winners to have their pets spayed or neutered at no cost. Entry forms and boxes have been placed around town in local businesses and public buildings. The drawing will take place on March 3.

Since 1973, the Humane Society of Jamestown has assisted with the altering of over 1,000 animals. Community Center open to teens Friday nights.

Community center opens for teens

The Community Center will open Friday nights for all high school students, beginning this week, Friday, Feb. 23, from 5:30 to 9 p.m. Teens can meet to play basketball, pool, ping-pong, cards, and help plan upcoming trips and activities.

Plans are underway for the construction of a Teen Center in the Community Center, and teens are needed to help with program planning, fundraising, and the formation of a youth newsletter and website. Contact Melissa Minto for more information at 741-0562 or email jamestownteens@yahoo.com.
