ABOUT TOWN

Meeting to focus on marketing strategies

The next session in the Jamestown Chamber Winter Breakfast Series will be Thursday, Feb. 28, from 7:30 to 8:45 a.m. at the Bay Voyage Inn. The topic will be "Marketing Your Small Business," and the featured speakers are Eric Cote of Cote D'Ambrosio, speaking on marketing strategies behind the success of the agency's local and national clients, and Tony Lush, president of Advanced Web Marketing, will share his expertise on keyword marketing and search engine optimization.

The cost is $15 for Chamber members, $20 for non-members, and includes a hot buffet breakfast. Payment may be made at the door by cash or check. RSVP by Monday, Feb. 25 to info@jamestown-RIchamber.com or 423-3650.

Children's dance classes offered

The Jamestown Parks and Recreation Department presents two new dance classes for island youth. Karen Sachetti, creator of SmartStart RI, will lead two Saturday morning classes at the Jamestown Country Club.

"Little Dancing Feet!" is for children ages 3 to 5 years old, and will run from 10 to 10:45 a.m. These dynamic classes include multi-cultural and fun story dances where children learn the art of self-expression through the mastery of dance skills. "Kid Power Moves!" is for children ages 6 to 8 years old, and will run from 11 to 11:45 a.m. Children are invited for a fun movement program that uniquely combines creative dance with stretching. This program lays a foundation for a lifetime of health by reducing stress, enhancing focus and self-control while promoting creativity and character-building education.

The programs will run from Saturday, Feb. 16 through March 22 and cost $45 per child. Visit www.smartstartri.com for more info or call the recreation office at 423-7260. Space is limited; register early.

Rec hours extended for vacation week

The Open Rec program at the Recreation Center will hold special hours next week for school vacation.

The Teen Center will be open for all students in grades 7 to 12 on Monday through Thursday from 2 to 6 p.m. and Friday from 2 to 9 p.m. Open Rec will be open to students in grades 3 to 6 on Tuesday to Friday from 1 to 3 p.m. For more information, call the recreation office at 423-7260.

Help Jamestown's new animal shelter

There will be an organizational meeting for the Jamestown Animal Shelter on Wednesday, Feb. 20, at 7 p.m., at the Jamestown library.

Volunteers and board members are needed, but anyone interested in helping with the shelter in any way should attend the meeting. Teens who need community service hours are encouraged to participate. This is a great way to have fun while completing the community service requirement. Refreshments will be served.

fund-raising and we are not in a position to year after year provide funding to the athletic department. Asking a handful of volunteers to balance the athletic department's budget is not responsible or sustainable."

William "Bucky" Brennan, the Jamestown liaison to the NK School Committee, said it is not surprising that the committee would be looking at the sports budget. "Sports are an easy low-hanging fruit. You have a very vocal localized group pushing this agenda because they think sports are a luxury, but I think they need to look at the big picture. Special education kids play sports, art kids play sports, this affects everyone," he said.

Roth summed up the entire debate by encouraging community involvement.

"We need people to talk to us. The average parent needs to come to the school committee meetings and find out what is going on in their schools. I encourage Jamestown parents to come to our meetings and get involved," Roth said.
