

OBITUARY

Robert E. Healy, 70

Robert E. Healy, 70, of Pemberton Place, Jamestown, died Sunday Feb. 10, 2008 at the Philip Hulitar Home and Hospice Intake Center, Providence.

He was the husband of the late Gertrude (Jeonote) Healy and Barbara Healy.

Mr. Healy was born in Attleboro, Mass., the son of the late Charles F. and Doris B. (Chariter) Healy. He was the stepson of Ruth M. (Smith) Healy. Mr. Healy worked for various manufacturing firms and for HUD in maintenance and construction for many years. He moved to Jamestown 18 years ago.

He loved Jamestown, where he had a small boat and was an avid fisherman. He also was a great lover of golf. He belonged to the Rhode Island Salt Water Anglers Association and the Jamestown Strippers Club.

He leaves his daughter, Colleen K. Healy of Pawtucket, his sister Maureen (Healy) Miller and her husband Gerald of North Attleboro, Karen J. Healy of Attleboro, his stepmother Ruth M. Healy of Attleboro, His granddaughters, Amanda and Brianna Healy of Huntsville, Ala., and their mother Brooke Healy, several nieces and nephews.

Visiting hours will be Friday, Feb. 15, in the Manning-Heffern Funeral Home 68 Broadway, Pawtucket, from 4 to 6 p.m. There will be a brief prayer service at 5:54 p.m. Burial will be private.

In lieu of flowers donations may be made to the Home and Hospice Care of RI, 169 George St. Pawtucket, RI 02860 in Mr. Healy's memory.

Docents needed at Smith's Castle

Smith's Castle Historic House Museum in North Kingstown will hold two sessions for prospective volunteers in March.

Volunteering at the 18th century home is a great opportunity for history enthusiasts of all ages who wear historically-accurate costumes while teaching visitors about the house.

Docents require 14 hours of training and must volunteer twice a month. Greeters must complete two hours of training.

Volunteer information sessions will be on Sunday, March 2 or Sunday, March 9 from 1 to 3 p.m. at the museum annex. Docent training will begin April 5.

For more information, call Mary Nunes at 789-6791 or e-mail mnunes66@hotmail.com.
