Benefit for MLK center slated

The 12th annual Swing into Spring fund-raising event is coming to Newport on March 20. The evening will feature a buffet dinner, cash bar, and the smooth sounds of the Bob Kendall Band at the Atlantic Beach Club.

Tickets purchased before March 17 are $50 per person and $90 per swinging couple or will be available at the door for $60 per person.

A fantastic Silent Auction will feature a wide array of items including artwork, fitness packages, jewelry, summer camps for kids, and lots more.

The annual Swing into Spring benefits the work of the Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Community Center (MLKCC) and is one of the non-profit organization's primary fund-raising events of the year. The MLKCC receives no public funding, so it relies on the generosity of neighbors, local businesses and individuals to support the wide variety of services and programs it provides to the community.

Join expert for talk on popular houseplant

Growing African violets is a lot of fun—they thrive under a variety of conditions and provide bloom all year long. With thousands of varieties to choose from, nearly every color is represented, as well as edged, fantasy, striped and variegated characteristics.

An avid grower of African violets for 20 years, Susan Gimblet usually cultivates between 75 and 80 different varieties at any given time. Join Gimblet at Blithewold Mansion, Gardens & Arboretum on Wednesday, March 19, at 6:30 p.m. as she touts the violet's virtues and shares her time-tested secrets.

Growing conditions, re-potting techniques, propagation protocols, and maintenance will be covered in depth. Gimblet will show and sell violets from her personal collection and she invites participants to bring in their own plants for evaluation and grooming.

Pre-registration is required, and the cost is $12 for Blithewold members and $15 for non-members. Call 253-2707, ext. 21 to register, or visit www.blithewold.org.
