

Capital Campaign Finale

This spring brings with it the finale of the 2007-2008 Jamestown Historical Society Capital Campaign. On Sunday, May 11, the Capital Campaign Committee chairs, Anne Livingston and John A. Murphy, will host an open house at our new and renovated facilities. Refreshments will be served at the museum, and guides will show you through the basement of the Town Hall to the historical society vault.

Festivities start at 5 p.m. Flags will be raised on the new flagpole in front of the museum about 6 p.m. "Message to the Future" cards will be available for anyone who wants to contribute to our efforts and add a message to the time capsule that will be placed under the floor of the museum.

Join the celebration! And thank you all for your support over this past year.

Our goal for the Capital Campaign has been to raise $500,000 to renovate the museum, build a vault for our archives in the new Town Hall, increase our contribution to the Jamestown history programming at the schools, and fund an endowment to assure an income stream to maintain these improvements.

At this time, we have in-hand gifts and pledges for over $480,000. The renovations to the museum are almost complete; the vault is already in use. We are creating a youth-friendly display of the 1657 Land Agreement document in the Town Hall as a step toward stimulating interest in Jamestown history in young people and adults. Betty Hubbard is designing the landscaping around the museum, and on Arbor Day, April 25, the Tree Preservation and Protection Committee will plant two trees on the town property near the museum that will complement her plans.

In the meantime, we are making a final push to reach our full $500,000 goal. If you can help, please send your contribution to the Jamestown Historical Society, P.O. Box 156, Jamestown, RI 02835, or call me at 423-2674 to talk about a pledge or gift.

Kennedy assassination talk

The JHS and the Friends of the Jamestown Library are co-sponsoring a presentation by David Kaiser, professor of history at the Naval War College and long-time Jamestown resident, on Thursday, April 17, at 7 p.m. Professor Kaiser will discuss his newly released book, "The Road to Dallas: The Assassination of John F. Kennedy," published last month by Harvard University Press.

Reviews of Dr. Kaiser's book have been uniformly positive. "Kaiser's nuanced conclusions on Oswald's guilt and the ominous issue of conspiracy will command respect from even those who disagree with them," wrote G. Robert Blakey, former Chief Counsel of the House Select Committee on Assassinations. "His attention to detail and use of recently released FBI and CIA files put this analysis ahead of many of its fellows," Pub-
