

Meet Ida Lewis at annual meeting

The Rose Island Lighthouse Foundation will present a visit with lighthouse keeper Ida Lewis at its 24th Annual Meeting, which is to be held on Tuesday, April 22, at the Newport Yacht Club on Long Wharf. Ms. Lewis, portrayed by actress Marilyn Murphy Meardon, will tell of her famous rescues and will be available afterwards to answer questions about her life and illustrious career in a job usually performed by men.

The meeting will be from 5 to 7 p.m. with a short business meeting at 6 p.m., followed by the presentation. Hors d'oeuvres will be served and a cash bar will be available. The public is encouraged to attend this informative and interesting historic event.

Attendance is limited. Call The Rose Island Lighthouse Foundation (RILF) to purchase $12 advance tickets at 847-4242. Tickets will be $15 after April 17. For more information, visit www.roseisland-lighthouse.org.

Learn to hook rugs from master 'thrummer'

On Sunday, May 4, from 1 to 3 pm, Dolores Bannister, of the Little Rhody Thrummers will offer a workshop in the art of traditional rug hooking. This workshop is recommended for adults and older teens.

A materials fee of $15 will supply participants with a small frame, a hook, and enough material for three mini rugs.

Checks may be made payable to the Friends of Jamestown Library. Visit the library to register for the workshop. For more information, call 423-7280.
