Florence E. Boisseau, 94

Florence E. Boisseau 94, formerly of Woonsocket and Jamestown, died Sunday, April 13, 2008 at the Manors of Hobe Sound, Hobe Sound Fla. She was the wife of the late Albert Boisseau.

Born in Woonsocket, she was a resident of the city most of her life before moving to Jamestown where she lived for 13 years, before relocating to Hobe Sound.

She was a homemaker, and was a communicant of Holy Family Church in Woonsocket and an active member of the Jamestown Senior Center. Survivors include a daughter Annette Barrette and her husband Gerard of Port St. Lucie, Fla.; two grandchildren, Linda Healey and her husband Paul of Melbourne Fla., and Denis Barrette and his wife Leslie of Port St. Lucie; and four great-grandchildren; Mallory Kowal, Bailey Kowal, Stacie Barrette and Kyle Barrette. She is also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Visitation will be Saturday from 8:30 to 9:30 a.m. at the Fournier Funeral Home, 463 S. Main St., Woonsocket, with a Mass of Christian Burial to follow in Holy Family Church at 10 a.m. Burial will be in Precious Blood Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers donations in her memory may be made to St. Ann Arts and Cultural Center, P.O. Box 79, Woonsocket RI, 02895.

Rosalie Kincaid, 92

Rosalie (Hunt) Kincaid, 92, of Howland Avenue died Friday, April 4, 2008 at Village House in Newport. She was the wife of the late Leslie M. Kincaid, who died in 1979.

Born in Westfield, Mass., a daughter of the late Charles and Ethel (Douglas) Hunt, she grew up in Hillsboro, N.H. before moving to Jamestown in 1951.

She was a member of Central Baptist Church in Jamestown and was a member of Fideles of Central Baptist Church.

She leaves two sons, Charles Kincaid of Jamestown and James Kincaid and his wife Catherine of Weare, N.H.; one grandson and one great-granddaughter; and several cousins. She was the mother of the late David, Patricia Ann and Cynthia Kincaid. She was the sister of the late Dorothea Hunt Morris.

She was buried in Maple Avenue Cemetery in Hillsboro, N.H.

Memorial contributions in her memory made to the Central Baptist Church, PO Box 296, Jamestown, RI 02835 will be appreciated. Arrangements are with Fagan-Quinn Funeral Home, North Kingstown.

Michael Marsh, 57

Michael R. Marsh, 57, a longtime Jamestown resident, died April 10, 2008 in Florida. He was the husband of Rachel Marsh of Newport.

Born in Newport in 1950, he was the son of the late William and Norma M. Marsh.

He is survived by his son Ryan Marsh; a brother, William Marsh of Jamestown; sisters, Patricia Salazar of Charlestown, Nancy Just of Santa Rosa, Cal., and Paula Thompson of Hawaii.

A memorial service will be held at a later date.

Mary Maxwell, 90

Mary Allerton Newhall Maxwell, 90, formerly of Philadelphia, Pa., Worcester, Mass. and Jamestown, died April 10, 2008 at the Grand Island Health Center in Middletown. She was the widow of Dr. James Ackley Maxwell.

The second daughter of Daniel Allerton Newhall and Ellen Godfrey Newhall of Narberth, Pa. and Jamestown, she attended Miss Porter's School in Farmington, Conn. and then trained as a secretary, holding a number of jobs in New York and Washington before joining the Navy.

During World War II she served in the WAVES (Women Accepted for Volunteer Emergency Service) division of the United States Navy in Washington, DC, attaining the rank of Yeoman First Class. There she met her future husband and moved with him to Worcester, Mass., where Dr. Maxwell was Chair of the Economics Department at Clark University. She lived in Worcester for 45 years, raising three children and taking an active role in her church and the community. She was a strong supporter of the League of Women Voters, helped to establish a volunteer bank, and assisted in end-of-life hospice care. Throughout her life she helped the needy through the Episcopal Church, and gained strength and support from her many clergy friends.

Mrs. Maxwell enjoyed gardening, bridge and travel, visiting relatives and friends in Canada, Europe and various parts of the United States. She accompanied her husband on extended sabbatical trips to Australia and Lebanon, and attended numerous elder hostels in her children and grandchildren and always welcomed their friends in her homes.

Mrs. Maxwell is survived by her three children, Anne Maxwell Livingston, of Jamestown; Daniel Maxwell and Ellen Maxwell of Washington, D.C. She is also survived by five grandchildren, Mary and Phoebe Livingston, Gustaf,

Charles and Oscar Lonaeus, and two step-grandchildren, Julia and Catalina Preatu. She was predeceased by her sister Eleanor Newhall Churchman Weber.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, April 19, at Trinity Church in Newport.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests that donations be sent to the Episcopal Charities Fund of Rhode Island, 275 North Main Street, Providence RI 02903.
