POLICE LOG

Suspended license and marijuana possession charged

Jeffrey Viveiros, 50, of Johnston, was charged April 13 for third offense driving with a suspended license and marijuana possession after a routine traffic stop on Beavertail Road, police said.

Viveiros was arraigned at the police station and a pre-trial hearing was scheduled for April 25 at Newport District Court, police said.

Suspended license charged

David Squizzero, 39, of Cranston was charged April 14 for driving with a suspended license after a routine traffic stop on Route 138 westbound, police said.

An arraignment was scheduled for April 25 at Newport District Court, police said.

Marijuana possession charged

Mikchael Salafia, 21, of Saunderson was charged April 17 with possession of marijuana after he was stopped on Beavertail Road near Ft. Getty Road as a follow-up investigation for a previous arrest, police said.

Salafia was held overnight at the police station and pleaded no contest in Newport District Court the next morning. The charge was filed for one year with a $200 contribution to the victim's compensation fund, police said.

Possession of marijuana and underage possession of alcohol charged

James Salafia, 18, of Saunderson was charged April 17 with possession of marijuana and underage possession of alcohol after he was stopped on Beavertail Road at Hull's Cove for a follow-up investigation to a previous arrest, police said.

Salafia was held overnight at the police station and pleaded no contest at Newport District Court the next morning. The charge was filed for one year with a $200 contribution to the victim's compensation fund and 20 hours of community service, police said.

Pacesetters walk hard for Jimmy Fund

Joyce Hooley Bartlett, and Vicki and Deken Schmidt of Jamestown, were among the people recognized for their extraordinary results in collecting pledges for the 2007 Boston Marathon Jimmy Fund Walk presented by Hyundai at the Walk's annual Pacesetter reception.

Membership in the Pacesetter Club is reserved for those walkers who generate $1,000 or more in pledges. Members of the Pacesetter Club represent only 22 percent of total walkers in the event, yet their collective work generated more than 61 percent of the event's total of $6.4 million. Led by a dedicated and committed group of team captains, 701 teams contributed an astonishing 79 percent of the $6.4 million total.

The 20th Annual Boston Marathon Jimmy Fund Walk will take place on Sept. 21 and will strive to raise $7 million this year. Visit www.jimmyfundwalk.org or call (866) JF-1-WALK for more information.
