Golf tourney to benefit student athletes at URI

The Annual Fast Break Club Rams Legends Golf Tournament will be held Monday, June 23, at Quiddnesset Country Club in North Kingstown. This year's honoree is Ram legend Steve Chubin, from the class of 1966.

The event, which is a substantial fund-raiser for the University of Rhode Island men's basketball, begins with an 11 a.m. registration/lunch. A shotgun start at 1 p.m. will be followed by cocktails at 5:30 p.m. and dinner and awards at 7 p.m.

The cost for the golf tournament is $200 per person and includes: golf with cart, lunch, dinner, prizes, raffle, and auction. The cost for dinner only is $40 per person.

Call Joe Drago at 423-3216 or Colin Russell in URI Athletics Development 874-2389 or email crussell@foundation.uri.edu for more information.

SOME MIGHT BELIEVE THAT...

We have become a "talk show" nation. Woe is us.

Nuanced and careful analysis gives way to harsh rhetoric. Questions are not answered candidly and directly. Shouting and talking over one's counterparts are common. The cheap shot and sound bite reign, and substitute for rational discourse.

Public discussion, which ought to be directed to the careful crafting of policy, is instead pitched to base emotion, such as revenge. The weak and powerless, the eternal other [those who are not us], are scapegoated and blamed for ills over which they have no control whatsoever.

The Federalist Papers would not be persuasive and influential in today's political environment. Probably would not even be read.
