LEGAL TIP

A truck rental firm can be sued by a woman who was injured while helping a lessee move, the Nebraska Supreme Court has ruled reversing a summary judgement.

The plaintiff's parents rented a U-Haul truck for a move to Nebraska. The truck was licensed in Kentucky and rented in Iowa.

The plaintiff was injured when her foot was pinned as she attempted to reposition the truck's loading ramp at the same time that her father backed the vehicle up to a porch to unload. She sued U-haul for negligence, alleging that the company failed to provide warnings that ramps should not be extended while a truck is in motion.

U-Haul argued that a lessor of vehicles owes no duty of care to third parties.

The court disagreed and states the lessor has a duty to warn third party users.
