

Hello to all! Hope you are enduring this heat wave, and I'm sure you are looking for some rain in the very near future. You are not alone!

If you're feeling the heat and humidity to excess, we remind you that the Senior Center is very comfortably air conditioned, and welcomes you. If you're feeling the pinch at the grocery stores as a result of a tough economy, constantly stretching your budget, we remind you that the Senior Center Meal Site serves delicious three-course luncheons every weekday at a cost of only $3 per person. Again, we welcome you. We just ask that you make a reservation by phone at 423-2658.

These meals are for seniors and disabled members of our community, and are not income related. If you're stuck in the house and feeling lonely, we remind you that there are old friends and new ones to be made that come frequently to the Senior Meal Site, to enjoy each other's company and companionship and we welcome you. If climbing the stairs presents a problem for you, we remind you that we have an elevator to serve you.

Meals are prepared in our Rhode Island Department of Health certified kitchen by certified food handlers, and served on fine china, in clean, cool, pleasant and comfortable surroundings.

They are very tasty and consist of a soup or a refreshing salad for openers, followed by an entrée or a sandwich (your choice), refreshing ice cold milk, juices, bread/rolls and butter, and topped off by a delicious dessert or fruit if you have diet limitations. Tea and coffee are available as well.

Our gardens at the front entrance of the Senior Center are a beautiful sight to behold. The décor of the dining room, at the present time, displays the joys of summer at the beach – and all for the pleasure and delight of those who accept our invitation to come on down and enjoy the grand good things that are there especially to welcome and serve you.

Meals on Wheels are available for shut-in seniors of our community, and we can give you the information you need to enroll yourself, members of your family, or someone you know who is confined to their home.

Please call us at 423-2658 or 423-1026 for anything you want to know about these services to senior and disabled members of our community.

Where in the World is the Jamestown Press?

The return delivery crew of the yacht Aurora, which finished first in their division in the Newport to Bermuda Race, took the Press when they hooked a 45-pound mahi mahi somewhere off the Gulf Stream between Hamilton and Newport.

'Run' to be featured by book group

The next book to be read by the book groups at the Jamestown library will be "Run" by Ann Patchett, on Tuesday, Aug. 12, at 1 p.m. There will be no evening discussion in August.

Booklist gave "Run" a starred review. "The question of what makes a family is central to this luminous novel, Patchett's first since her award-winning Bel Canto, published in 2001."

The Jamestown library runs two book discussions. The Evening Group meets on the second Monday of the month at 7 p.m. The Afternoon Group meets on the second Tuesday of the month at 1 p.m. Both groups are facilitated by library director Judy Bell. For this month only, there will only be one meeting. The library is closed on Monday, Aug. 11 for Victory Day.

At the Aug. 12 meeting, the group will finalize our choices for the next six books to be read by both groups. Among the titles recommended by our participants and under consideration are:

"On Chesil Beach," by Ian McEwan; "Out Stealing Horses," by Per Petterson; "The Cave," by Jose Saramago; "Peace Like A River," by Leif Enger; "Demon Of The Waters : The True Story Of The Mutiny On The Whaleship Globe," by Gregory Gibson; "The Great Man : A Novel," by Kate Christensen and "Bride Of Sighs," by Richard Russo.

For more information, call the library at 423-7280. The book may be obtained through the Jamestown library by placing holds on one of the many copies in the state available through the Ocean State Libraries. Registration is not required.
