OBITUARIES

Virginio F. Bettencourt, 81

Virginio "Gene" Figueiredo Bettencourt, 81, of Jamestown, died July 25, 2008.

He was the husband of Laura Rezendes Bettencourt, to whom he was married for 56 years.

Born in Santa Maria, Azores, Portugal on Dec. 6, 1926, he was a son of the late Vitorino Andrade and Maria St. Antonio (Figueiredo) Bettencourt. He immigrated to Hartford, Conn., in September of 1952 and settled in West Hartford until he retired.

Prior to his retirement, he was a Master Carpenter from Local Union 43 and as a skilled carpenter, he built his home in Jamestown. He truly enjoyed his retirement years gardening and spending time with his family.

He was a member of Our Lady of Fatima Church, Hartford, and a founding member of the Holy Ghost Portuguese Society, East Hartford.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Maritana "Tanya" Guadalupe, and her husband, Ventura of Newington, Conn., a son, Jeffrey Bettencourt, and his wife, Cecilia of West Hartford, and four grandchildren, Marissa and Kimberly Guadalupe, Andrew and Lauren Bettencourt. He also leaves a brother, John of Taunton, Mass. and a sister, Helena of Hartford, as well as several other extended family members.

Gene was predeceased by his brothers, Manuel, Jose and Antonio and sisters, Amelia, Isaura, Filomena, and Adelina.

The funeral was Monday from the Sheehan Hilborn Breen Funeral Home in West Hartford. Burial was in Mt. St. Benedict Cemetery, Bloomfield, Conn.

POLICE LOG

Procuring alcohol for minors charged

David J. Gladding, 21, of 18 Bay St., was charged July 26 with procuring alcohol for minors and a violation of a no contact order.

According to police, Gladding turned himself in to police after being notified there was a warrant issued for his arrest based on an underage-drinking gathering he allegedly hosted earlier in the evening.

Gladding was held overnight at the police station and a pre-trial conference was scheduled for Aug. 8 at Newport District Court, police said.

Underage possession of alcohol charged

Three female juveniles were charged July 25 with underage possession of alcohol after officers responded to a noise complaint on Bay Street and observed the three with the alcohol, police said.

The juveniles were released to their parents and the case was referred to Family Court, police said.

Ross Bohensky, 20, of 74 Stern St. and Alexander Gorzewski, 18, of North Kingstown, were charged July 23 with underage possession of alcohol after officers discovered an underage drinking party at the Stern Street address while investigating a neighbor's complaint of a loud party, police said.

Both men are due to appear Aug. 8 in Newport District Court, police said.

Fugitive from justice

Robert Barcellos, 29, of 77 Riptide St., was charged July 26 with driving on a suspended license and being a fugitive from justice during a routine traffic stop on Tashtassuc Road, police said.

Barcellos was taken into custody and transported to ACI, police said.

He was scheduled to appear July 28 in Newport District Court, police said.

Dance benefit supports Alzheimer's foundation

Exercise the mind and body at the "Dance to Remember," on Wednesday, Aug. 13, beginning at 6 p.m. at Easton's Beach Rotunda in Newport.

Several well known local dance instructors will teach and lead various forms of dance, including standards such as tango and rumba to more modern styles like Latin funk and zumba.

Singles, couples, friends and guests of all ages are all welcome in this no pressure environment. The dance instructors include Eddie Anella, Martina Aldrich, Rachel Balaban, Sara Barker, Katherine Carbone, Jackie Henderson, Paul and Roxanne Lacroix, and Carol Perry.

The suggested $25 donation includes an hour of carousel rides from 6 to 7 p.m., hors d'oeuvres, and dance instruction until 11 p.m. A cash bar will be available. Parking is free. All proceeds will benefit the Rhode Island Alzheimer Foundation.

For more information or to make a donation, call Ginger Sahady at 465-6577. Tickets may also be purchased at Baker's Pharmacy.

A FAMILY THAT HAS SERVED LOCAL FAMILIES FOR 4 GENERATIONS...

STILL IS.

"Our family has been a part of the Rhode Island community for over 90 years, so we know what a special place it is. As caring neighbors and close advisors, we have always been there for families through difficult times. We are committed to providing the very best service before, during, and after the funeral."
