Payton Elizabeth Watson, 11

Payton Elizabeth Watson, 11, of Shady Cove Road, North Kingstown, died peacefully Oct. 19, 2008 surrounded by her loving family after a battle with acute myelogenous leukemia. She fought her disease with phenomenal strength, courage and hope.

She had an incredible zest for life and enormous love for her friends and family. She would have celebrated her 12th birthday on Nov. 18.

Born in Providence, she was the beloved daughter of Frank and Elizabeth (Goode) Watson and the cherished sister of Frankie Watson.

Payton was a seventh grader at Wickford Middle School where she was a member of the yearbook committee and the leadership program.

Payton enjoyed arts and crafts, swimming, going to the beach and Disneyworld. She played soccer from the age of 3.

Besides her parents and sister, she leaves her maternal grandmother, Frances Goode of Jamestown; and aunts and uncles, Ellen and Bill House of Jamestown, Barbara and Dan Tanguay of Boynton Beach, Fla., Cathy Goode of Jamestown, Theresa Botelho of Portsmouth, Timothy and Robert Goode both of Jamestown. She was the sister of the late Benjamin Watson and the paternal granddaughter of the late Benjamin and Bertha Watson. She also leaves her first cousins, Billy House, Ellen Andersen, Carl and Gage DeVelis, Rachel Sisson, Ken and Steven Lerner and Paul Botelho, as well as other relatives and friends.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend a Mass of Christian Burial on Thursday, Oct. 23, 2008, at 10 a.m. in St. Mark Church, 60 Narragansett Ave., Jamestown. Burial will be in Elm Grove Cemetery, North Kingstown. Arrangements are by Fagan-Quinn Funeral Home. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in Payton's memory may be made to The Tomorrow Fund, RI Hospital Campus, 593 Eddy St., Providence, RI 02903 or the Association of Hole in the Wall Camps, 265 Church St., Suite 503, New Haven, CT 06510.

Women's self-defense course offered by police

The Jamestown Police Department is offering a Rape Aggression Defense (RAD) Class for women of all ages.

The class is free. Participants must be able to attend all four nights. Anyone under 18 must be accompanied by an adult. For more information, call Sgt. Karen Catlow at the police station 423-1212. Space is limited.

POLICE LOG

Eluding police charged

Danielle M. Delnero, 28, of Middletown, was charged Oct. 15 with eluding police after she drove through three towns while being pursued by police. The pursuit began in Newport, police said, and then Jamestown police picked up the chase on Route 138. Police said Delnero refused to stop and crossed the Jamestown Bridge and drove to North Kingstown where police there picked up the chase. Delnero turned herself in the next morning, police said.

A pre-trial hearing was scheduled for Oct. 21 at Newport District Court, police said.

License violations charged

• Vicki L. Fry, 46, of West

Warwick, was charged Oct. 16 with driving with a suspended license after police ran a random check on her tags and learned that she had an expired driver's license, police said.

Fry was scheduled to appear Oct. 31 in Newport District Court, police said.

• Mark Streich, 51, of East Greenwich, was charged Oct. 17 with driving with a suspended license after police stopped him for speeding on North Main Road, police said.

An arraignment was scheduled for Nov. 14 in Newport District Court, police said.

Suspended license and warrant violation charged

Alexander Couvertier, 36, of

Newport, was charged Oct. 16 with driving with a suspended license and a warrant violation from Newport Police Department after he was stopped on Route 138 eastbound for erratic operation of a vehicle, police said.

According to police, the plates on the car Couvertier was driving belonged on a different vehicle. When police ran his driver's license, the report came back that it was suspended and Couvertier was wanted by the Newport police department for a warrant violation, police said.

Couvertier was taken to the police station and an arraignment date was scheduled for Oct. 31 at Newport District Court, police said.
