ABOUT TOWN

Thanksgiving feast Sunday at library

The Friends of the Jamestown Library will host a re-creation of the first Thanksgiving on Sunday, Nov. 23, from 2:30 to 4:15 in the library meeting hall.

There will be some great stories told and a screening of Charlie Brown's version of the holiday with his friends.

In the spirit of giving, bring one non-perishable food item to donate to the Jamestown food closet and a simple item to add to the pot luck feast.

The program is free and open to all ages. Pre-register at the library desk or by phone 423 7280.

Recycle unused or outgrown soccer uniforms

All past and present Jamestown Soccer Association players from the 2006-2007 and 2007-2008 spring competitive seasons can donate their uniforms that have been outgrown or are no longer used to new JSA soccer players.

There will be a drop box at the Teen Center from Monday, Nov. 24 to Wednesday, Nov. 26. Hours are Monday and Tuesday from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m., and Wednesday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

For more information, contact Greer Beecroft at 345-5755.

North Kingstown drama troupe stages "Anatomy of Gray"

Jamestown Georgia Wright will lead the North Kingstown High School NorTHheatre drama troupe as narrator June Muldoon in Jim Leonard's "Anatomy of Gray" this Friday through Sunday.

Set in the late 1800s, "Anatomy of Gray" takes place in Gray, Ind., described by the young narrator as "the most boring place in the world." June's boring town quickly has a change in atmosphere when Dr. Galen P. Gray arrives unexpectedly during a terrible storm. Dr. Gray's arrival from the sky to the town bearing his name – a town in need of a doctor – immediately wins over the hearts of the townspeople. The town welcomes Dr. Gray with open arms, ready to have their everyday ailments remedied. However, when a strange sickness starts to spread, and people start to die, the town questions their faith in their newfound healer.

Performances are Friday and Saturday, Nov. 21 and 22 at 7 p.m., and Sunday, Nov. 23 at 2 p.m. in the NKHS auditorium. Tickets are $8 in advance and $10 at the door. Advance tickets may be reserved by calling 932-4441.
