Buy Local. Think Global.

Local businesses are the foundation of our community. Your purchasing power can help preserve a vibrant community and a strong local economy. Be green with a more responsible and healthier shopping style. Your dollars spent in local businesses have three times the impact in our local community as the same amount spent in national chains. Small businesses are the backbone of the American economy.

Start at home to save the world. Think before you shop. Make a difference. Buy from local businesses.

You'll find advertisements for many local businesses in your hometown weekly newspaper — the source for local news.
