

Holiday house tour slated for Dec. 13

The Junior League of Rhode, Inc. will sponsor its seventh annual house tour fundraising event, "Seaside Holiday: Narragansett-Not Just For Summer" in Narragansett on Saturday, Dec. 13.

This event will feature self-guided tours of several beautiful coastal homes decorated for the holidays in Narragansett's south end. All proceeds from this event support the mission of the Junior League of Rhode Island, Inc. and its training and volunteer programs, which include supporting literacy for young children with Children's Friend and Service and Women Ending Hunger with the Rhode Island Community Food Bank.

The house tour event will run from 9:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. with the last check-in at 3:30 p.m. Registration for the house tour, boutique, and café will be held at the historic Narragansett Towers on 35 Ocean Rd. in Narragansett.

Tour guests can pick up their guidebooks, browse the holiday marketplace featuring several cottage vendors, and take in the majestic ocean views of Narragansett in the Great Hall of The Towers. A café featuring coffee, hot chocolate, and food items from the JL-RI's cookbook will be available on the Tower's lower level. Tickets for the house tour are $30 in advance or at the door with a donation of three non-perishable food items or $35 at the door. Ticket price includes trolley transportation between the featured homes.

For more information or to buy tickets, contact the Junior League of Rhode Island, Inc. at 331-9302 or at www.JLRI.org.
