

ABOUT TOWN

Rock with the Elderly Brothers

The Friends of the Jamestown Library will host the acoustic folk rock sounds of the Elderly Brothers at 3 p.m. on Sunday, Jan. 25, at the library.

The Elderly Brothers have been making music in the Newport area for the past two years. They entertain audiences with a blend of original material and hits of the fifties, sixties, and seventies including the Eagles, Crosby, Stills and Nash, Santana, Neil Young, Roy Orbison, the Beatles and Eric Clapton, along with the group's namesake, the Everly Brothers.

The group is comprised of Bill Thomas, Harry Spring, Jack Casey, Mark Gorman and Nicky Danvers.

The program is free and open to the public. For more information, call the library at 423-7280.

Pasta dinner raises money for teens

The Teen Center's Youth Advisory Board, Adolescents Making Programs for Teens, is hosting its first event on Tuesday, Feb. 3, from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. at the recreation center, 41 Conanicus Ave.

There will be a buffet-style pasta dinner with ziti and meatballs, salad and bread with a prize giveaway to follow.

All proceeds from the event will go towards funding programs for teens. Tickets will be sold in advance for $10 at Baker's Pharmacy, East Ferry Deli and the recreation center. Tickets will also be available at the door for $12.

Children under 5 eat free.

For more information or to purchase tickets, contact Debbie at 423-7261 or e-mail jamestownteens@yahoo.com.

Melrose preschool taking applications

The Melrose Avenue Preschool is now accepting applications for the 2009 - 2010 school year. The program is a fully inclusive program, supporting all children, ages 3 to 5. Each session is three hours, with a morning and an afternoon session, Monday to Thursday, and a morning-only session on Friday.

Children attend two, three, or four days per week, depending on their age. Tuition is based on the number of days a child attends.

Because of the size of the classroom, space is limited and children are selected by a random lottery, which will take place during the first week in March. To be eligible for the program, children must be screened through the Jamestown Child Outreach Program. Once an application is submitted, the Child Outreach Coordinator will contact the applicant to schedule an appointment. The application deadline is Thursday, Feb. 26. Applications are available in the Melrose Avenue School office.

Shores group meeting set

The Jamestown Shores Association will hold its next meeting at the Senior Center, 6 West St., on Wednesday, Jan. 28, at 7 p.m.

Everyone is invited and encouraged to attend.

Coffee and dessert will be served. For more information, call Charlotte Zarlengo, president, at 423-3518.

Sailing series starts tonight

The Friends of the Jamestown Library will focus on the 2009 12 Meter Worlds, as part of its Sailing Lecture Series, starting tonight, Thursday, Jan. 29, at 7:30 p.m. at the library.

Jan Slee, president of the 12 Meter Association will discuss the upcoming 12 Meter Golden Year of Racing, a year-long calendar of racing and events that will celebrate the 50th anniversary of the classic and elegant 12 Meter Class of boats in the America's Cup competition.

This "golden year" will highlight the famous 12 meters with regattas in Newport, Edgartown, Mass., Nantucket, Mass. and New York City. The highlight will be the 2009 12 Meter World Competition in Newport from Sept. 22 to 27.

Up to 35 12-meter yachts from around the world are likely to participate.

Special events open to the public will include competition viewing, a dockside party, a lecture series, book signings and film presentations.

Trophies and awards will be on display in addition to the slide presentation accompanying the talk.

The event is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served. For more information, contact Susan Lutes at 423-7435, or call the library at 423-7280.
