Trinity Rep artistic director to speak at library

The Friends of the Jamestown library will host Trinity Repertory Company's Artistic Director Curt Columbus on Sunday, Feb. 8, at 4 p.m. Columbus will lead a discussion of Trinity's upcoming production of Lorraine Hansberry's "A Raisin in the Sun."

Joining Mr. Columbus for the discussion will be Jamestown resident and Trinity Repertory Company associate artistic director Craig Watson.

The evening will include a discussion of the play, which participants may wish to read before the discussion.

Trinity Rep is also providing a raffle door prize of two tickets to 'A Raisin in the Sun', a signed show poster and a backstage theater tour.

This event is free and open to the public.

Since its founding in 1963, Trinity Repertory Company has been one of the most respected regional theaters in the country. Featuring the last permanent resident acting company in America, Trinity Rep presents a balance of world premiere, contemporary, and classic works for an estimated annual audience of nearly 160,000. In its 44-year history, the theater has produced 56 world premieres, mounted national and international tours, and, through its graduate-level theater arts conservatory, trained hundreds of new actors and directors.

A FAMILY THAT HAS SERVED LOCAL FAMILIES FOR 4 GENERATIONS...

STILL IS.

Our family has been a part of the Rhode Island community for over 90 years, so we know what a special place it is. As caring neighbors and close advisors, we have always been there for families through difficult times. We are committed to providing the very best service before, during, and after the funeral.
