Violet L. Doty, 97

Violet L. Doty (Lee), 97, of Union Street, died Wednesday, March 25, 2009 at Newport Hospital. She was the wife of the late John J. Doty Sr. and the former wife of the late Charles Hayward.

A lifelong resident of Jamestown, she was a daughter of the late William and Pearl (Mitchell) Lee.

Mrs. Doty was the owner of Doty's Variety Store for 36 years, retiring in 1966; during this time she developed a love for photography and took many pictures of Jamestown of which some were made into postcards. Many of these historical photographs are used today. She also worked a few seasons at the Jamestown Theatre selling tickets.

Mrs. Doty enjoyed cooking, knitting, gardening and her cats. She was an avid reader.

She leaves two children, John J. Doty Jr. and Nancy L. Frade both of Jamestown; a half-brother, Roy Johnston in Florida; and a granddaughter, Melissa McNaughton of Kingston. She was the grandmother of the late Marc D. Frade.

Her funeral and burial will be private.

Memorial contributions in her memory may be made to the Robert Potter League for Animals, P.O. Box 412, Newport, RI 02840. For information and guestbook visit: www.FaganQuinnFuneralHome.com.

her love of music and the arts followed her, and she generously shared her many creative talents. She was a board member of the Greenville, Penn. Symphony, and served as the docent for quilting at Colonial Miller-Corey House in Westfield, N.J. She was the first quilting instructor at Catawba Valley Community College, and then created and instructed a Cultural Arts Curriculum for the Catawba County Schools.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by two sons and daughters-in-law: Peter and Sally Schott of Jamestown, and Daniel Schott-Bardol and Jeanette Bybee of Bethlehem, N.C. She is also survived by her three beloved grandchildren, Emily, Will and John Schott.

A memorial service will be held on the Tuesday following Easter, April 14, at 11 a.m. at St. Alban's Episcopal Church in Hickory, N.C.

Donations in Ruth's memory to the charity or organization of choice would be appreciated.

Ruth B. Schott, 78

Ruth Bardol Schott, 78, died peacefully on March 31, 2009 in Hickory, N.C. surrounded by her family. She was the wife of 55 years of Edward E. Schott.

Born in Brooklyn, N.Y., Ruth was the daughter of the late Emily and John Bardol.

An economics graduate of Hunter College, Ruth studied oboe and organ at the Juilliard School. After graduation, she became the first woman in the investment department at J.P. Morgan & Associates.

No matter where Ruth lived,
