

ABOUT TOWN

Shred those important papers at Eco-Depot

The Jamestown Chamber of Commerce will host a "shred it" day in conjunction with the Eco-Depot on Saturday, June 6, at the Melrose Avenue School.

Affordable Shredding will donate its services. All Jamestown residents are invited to bring no more than two boxes of paper such as financial records to be shredded at no charge.

The shredding will be available from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Ali's run race is this Sunday at Ft. Getty

The 8th Annual Ali's Run will take place this Sunday, June 7.

At 1 p.m. the 5K race will proceed from Fort Getty Park along Southwest Avenue to Narragansett Avenue. The course then turns east on Narragansett Avenue, right on Howland Avenue, south onto Hamilton and returns to Fort Getty via Beavertail Road.

It is likely that traffic will be limited on these streets during the 5k run and walk. The committee thanks everyone in advance for their cooperation.

CIAA seeks artists for 'Icons of Jamestown'

Artists are invited to submit their work to the Conanicut Island Art Association's upcoming "Icons of Jamestown" show.

Members, non-members and non-Jamestown residents are welcome to submit their work. "Icons of Jamestown" will open Thursday, June 25, at Jamestown Town Hall Gallery.

Artists may enter up to three pieces. All art must be wired and ready to hang, with no saw tooth hangers. Maximum size is 48 inches by 48 inches. Maximum weight is 20 pounds. Non-member fees are $15 for the first piece and $5 for each remaining piece. Cost to members is $10 for the first piece and $5 for all other pieces. CIAA commission is 20 percent on all pieces sold.

Cash prizes will be awarded for first, second and third places

Drop-off will be from noon to 4 p.m. on Thursday, June 18, at the Jamestown Town Hall, 93 Narragansett Ave. Details are available on the association website, www.jamestownri.com/ciaa. For more information, call Wendy Crooks at 401-423-0993.

Dodgeball tournament to be held next week

The Teen Center's Youth Advisory Board, AMPT and Jamestown's seventh grade Teen Institute 2009 participants will host a dodgeball tournament at the Recreation Center on Thursday, June 11, at 3:30 p.m.

All students in grades 5 through 8 are welcome to participate. Teams are to have eight members and have some sort of uniform.

Sign up with Mrs. Nocon at Lawn Avenue School by Friday, June 5.

Each player is required to bring three non-perishable food items to replenish the Rhode Island Food Bank.

High school students are needed to be referees and are encouraged to bring a food item as well.

For more information or to make a donation to the Rhode Island Food Bank, contact Debbie Tungett at 423-7261 or email jamestownteens@yahoo.com.

Join the Jamestown Community band

The Jamestown Community Band is busy rehearsing in preparation for its summer schedule of concerts.

The band will march in the annual North End Fourth of July parade which starts at 10 a.m. on Saturday, July 4.

The band will also perform at the Rocket Hogs' fireworks display on Sunday, July 5, at Mackerel Cove.

On August 16, the band will perform in the last concert of the town's annual summer concert series on the green at East Ferry.

The band's final performance of the summer will be at the annual talent show.

The Jamestown Community Band has members of all ages, from kids to adults, and even a few professionals. The band welcomes new members. Little experience is needed.

The band practices on Tuesdays from 7 to 8:30 p.m. at the Portuguese American Club.

For more information, call Alan Brunner at 423-3581.

Driver's education offered in Jamestown

CCRI Driver's Education classes taught by Jim Barron will be offered at the Jamestown Fire Station beginning on Monday, June 15 and running through Friday, July 17.

The class will meet on Monday and Friday evenings from 6 to 9 p.m. Students must be 15 years, 10 months old by the first class to be able to participate.

For more information and to register, visit www.ccri.edu and look for the RI Driver Education site on the home page or call 825-1043. Do not call the fire station for information.

New group sheds light on tax burden

Republicans and Independents of Jamestown are invited to attend an introductory meeting for a new coalition of Republican and Independent voters at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday, June 10, at the Senior Center on West Street.

The gathering will cap off a day of protest being held at the state-house by the statewide Tea Party Rally organizers.

The meeting will offer an informal discussion about the growing tax burden all Rhode Islanders are facing.

Help local raise money to teach in Africa

Jacquelyn Stoeckle of Jamestown will spend a year volunteering as a teacher in Tanzania.

Stoeckle is part of a group of volunteers with Visions in Action, a nonprofit organization based in Washington, D.C. that sends volunteers to Africa to work with local development organizations.

In exchange for a program fee, Visions arranges Stoeckle's work permit, housing, orientation and placement assistance. Stoeckle has had to raise $6,900 for the year-long journey through donations and her savings.

Stoeckle has worked at the Bay Voyage restaurant since 2006. She will be holding a fundraising yard sale and bake sale on the lawn at the Bay Voyage on Saturday, June 6 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. On Sunday, June 7, a portion of the gratuities from Sunday brunch will be put towards fundraising.

Stoeckle graduated from the University of Tampa with a degree in psychology, and received her certification to teach English as a foreign language this winter. She is the daughter of Lynne Vietri and step-daughter of Alfred Vietri and a graduate of Prout High School.

For more information, contact Jacquelyn, by e-mail at jacquelyn@nas@gmail.com. To make a reservation for brunch, call the Bay Voyage at 423-2100.
