

Chadwick named editor at the Press

– Even When We Don't Love Our Own, was published in May by Da Capo Lifelong. She will continue her magazine writing career while serving as the paper's editor.

Chadwick is an active member of several community groups and is a board member of the Friends of the Jamestown Philomenian Library. She is also a member of the American Society of Journalists and Authors, and serves on the organization's annual Conference Committee.

Her husband, John, works for America Chrysler Dodge Jeep in Westerly. They have two children: Faith, an eighth-grader at Lawn Avenue School, and Evan, a sixth-grader at the school.

Downing has served as editor of the Press since November 2007.

Dara Chadwick

Island Monthly, Rhode Island Monthly's Bride and The Providence Journal.

Her first non-fiction book, You'd Be So Pretty If...: Teaching Our Daughters to Love Their Bodies

Dara Chadwick has been named editor of the Jamestown Press. She succeeds Adrienne Downing, who will resume her role as sports editor for the paper.

A native Rhode Islander, Chadwick has lived in Jamestown for the past three years.

A graduate of Syracuse University's S.I. Newhouse School of Public Communications, Chadwick began her career as a magazine staff editor and later served as editor of the Warwick Beacon newspaper. Since 1995, she has worked as a freelance writer, and her work has appeared nationally in Better Homes & Gardens, Family Circle, Woman's Day, Shape, Parenting, Working Mother and VIV, among others. Her work has been published locally in Rhode

St. Matthew's Church to hold 78th summer fair Saturday

Don't miss St. Matthew's 78th annual Summer Fair this Saturday, July 18, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The event will be held rain or shine.

The sale will feature the church's famous lobster rolls, the Beech Tree grill serving homemade chowder, hot dogs and hamburgers, and a tropical tiki punch stand. A large selection of home-baked goods will be for sale.

Children's games, a selection of toys and books, household furniture, electronics, sporting goods, jewelry and attic treasures for all tastes and budgets will also be available.

Inside the Parish Hall, this year's silent auction will offer bidding opportunities for antiques and collectibles, art work and attic treasures. There will be another opportunity to cruise aboard the Schooner Arabella to your choice of the Caribbean, New England or Chesapeake Bay waterways, a $4,000 value that has attracted many bids in past years. Other items include a stay on land in a Florida timeshare, a weekend at a boutique hotel in New York City and two tickets to the New England Patriots season opener.

The talents of parishioners are reflected in other silent auction items, including local artist Elizabeth Congdon's oil on linen painting entitled "Beavertail in June," along with a gold Jamestown pin from J.H. Breakell, nutrition analysis/personalized meal planning, yoga sessions at Innerlight Yoga and massage. Silent auction bidding will end at noon sharp. Winners need not be present and can be notified by telephone.

Proceeds from this annual event benefit the operation and outreach ministries of the parish.

St. Matthew's thrift shop will also be open during the fair.

Kickball game tonight will raise funds for teens

The Teen Center will host an adults-only kickball game tonight – Thursday, July 16 – from 8 to 11 p.m. at the Jamestown baseball fields to raise money for Teen Center programs.
