ABOUT TOWN

Foisy to make Jamestown debut

Summer music in Jamestown continues this Sunday, July 19, at 6:30 p.m. at East Ferry Memorial Square, with Garry Foisy making his Jamestown debut.

Foisy, a singer, songwriter and acoustic guitarist, has a strong personal style and a keen passion for vocals, harmony and meaningful lyrics. He has been playing, writing and performing throughout the New England area for more than 20 years.

A member of the Rhode Island Songwriters Association, Foisy performs as a featured artist in concert auditoriums, cafés and coffee shops throughout New England.

Bring blankets or chairs to enjoy this free concert sponsored by Ron DiMauro Architects. In case of rain, the show will go on at the Recreation Center.

Tour 'master gardens' this weekend with URI

Gardeners trained through URI's master gardener program will open 39 public and private gardens to the public during the organization's fourth biennial "Gardening with the Masters," this Saturday and Sunday, July 18-19, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., rain or shine.

The event, Rhode Island's only statewide garden tour, is sponsored by the URI Master Gardener Association, a 600-member all-volunteer service organization of certified URI master gardeners, whose mission focuses on education, outreach and sustainability.

Master gardeners will serve as guides at each site and educational materials will be available at www.urimga.org.

Guidebooks, which serve as admission for both days and include garden descriptions and directions, must be purchased in advance. They are available for $15 at garden centers throughout the state or through the URI master gardener website. Tickets are also available at Schartner Farms in Exeter, the Farmer's Daughter in Wakefield, Highland Farm in Wakefield and Chaves' Gardens in Middletown.
