OBITUARIES

Linda A. Bowmer, 64

Linda A. Bowmer, 64, of Pinecrest Drive, Pawtucket, passed away Oct. 17 at the home of her loving sister in Jamestown.

Born in Pawtucket, she was a beloved daughter of the late Robert and Gertrude (Conolly) Bowmer.

Linda graduated from Tolman High School. She received a B.S. in physical education and a Master's of Education in special education from Rhode Island College. She was the R.I. State Badminton Champion in the 1960s.

Linda was a special education teacher at Tolman High School for 35 years before retiring. She was a gift to the many special needs students and a great advocate for them.

She was a communicant of St. Leo the Great Church.

She leaves her sister, Barbara Bowmer, and many friends.

A Mass of Christian Burial was held yesterday at St. Leo the Great Church in Pawtucket. Burial was in Pawtucket Memorial Cemetery, Warwick.

Stephen M. Moreau, 60

Stephen M. Moreau, 60, of Whale Rock Road, passed away peacefully Oct. 14 at home, surrounded by his loving family and friends. He was the beloved husband of Cynthia (Murray) Moreau for 22 years; and the loving father of Kate A. Moreau.

Born in Warwick, he was a son of the late N. Robert and Judith (Benander) Moreau.

As a young man, Stephen spent many years participating in motorcycle endurance events throughout New England. He was a member of the R.I. Rhody Rovers.

He was the owner of P&M Marine Service Inc., providing a multitude of support services to the environmental and scientific communities.

An avid boater, he was a member of the Ft. Wetherill Boat Owners Association; and was a captain licensed by the U.S. Coast Guard. He was a skilled and creative craftsman, nature lover and weather watcher.

Besides his wife and daughter, he is survived by his three sisters and their husbands; Julie and George Reichling, Susan and Paul Cary, and Marguerite and Eric Hague, along with many nieces and nephews.

A celebration of Stephen's life was held Oct. 18. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions to the Moreau Memory Garden Fund, C/O Alite Care, 49 North Main Rd., Jamestown, RI 02835 will be appreciated. Visit www.FaganQuinnFuneralHome.com for online guestbook.

Mary Evans Thacker, 95

Mary Evans Thacker (Perry), 95, of Jamestown passed away Oct. 13 at Forest Farm Health Care in Middletown.

She was the wife of Edward H. Thacker and the late Edwin A. Evans.

A lifelong resident of Jamestown, she was the daughter of the late Antone A. and Mary (Dutra) Perry.

Mrs. Thacker was the former owner of Lang's Dry Goods in Jamestown. She was a very active communicant of St. Mark Church and was involved in many organizations in the Jamestown community. She was the first Democrat ever elected in Jamestown.

Mrs. Thacker was one of the founders of the Jamestown Recreation Board. She was an avid Red Sox and Patriots fan, and enjoyed playing golf.

She leaves a son, Edwin (Ned) Evans and his wife, Judith, of Charlestown; a daughter, Mary Jayne Lindgren and her husband, Ron, of Jamestown; two step-sons, David Thacker of Virginia and Bruce Thacker of Texas; a step-daughter, Margaret Chapman of Washington; a brother, Anthony J. Perry of Michigan; five grandchildren; five step-grandchildren; five great-grandchildren and 19 step-great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Joseph Perry.

A Mass of Christian Burial was held Oct. 20 in St. Mark Church. Burial was in St. Mark Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions to the R.I. Community Food Bank will be appreciated. Visit www.FaganQuinnFuneralHome.com for online guestbook.

A FAMILY THAT HAS SERVED LOCAL FAMILIES FOR 4 GENERATIONS...

STILL IS.

"Our family has been a part of the Rhode Island community for over 100 years, so we know what a special place it is. As caring neighbors and close advisors, we have always been there for families through difficult times. We are committed to providing the very best service before, during, and after the funeral."
