Farrelly named rookie of the week

Daniel Webster College field hockey player Maeghan Farrelly of Jamestown, a North Kingstown High School graduate, has been honored as rookie of the week by the New England Collegiate Conference. Farrelly, a freshman midfielder and defender, netted the first two goals of her collegiate career in the second half Oct. 24, guiding the visiting Eagles past NECC rival Elms College, 4-0.

Rounds named All-American swimmer

Elizabeth Rounds of Jamestown was named U.S. Swimming Scholastic All-American for the 2008-09 academic year. Criteria for this recognition are a minimum GPA of 3.5 and at least one qualifying Junior National bonus time standard. Rounds qualified for Junior Nationals in seven events. She is a senior at Lincoln School in Providence, and swims for Magnus Aquatic Group.

Met School to visit Teen Center

The Met School will visit the Jamestown Teen Center on Wednesday, Nov. 4, from 4 to 5 p.m. The event is part of the "Speakers and Sundaes" series. The Metropolitan Regional Career and Technical Center is a state-funded public school district that serves 690 high school students at six small schools in three campuses across R.I. Students and administrators from the Met will be available to answer any questions for prospective students. Ice cream sundaes will be provided following the presentation. All teens are encouraged to attend this free program. Call Debbie Tungett at 423-7261 or email jamestownteens@yahoo.com for more information.
