'Mother Daze' author to speak at library

The Friends of the Jamestown library will host Christine Carr, author of "Mother Daze: Tales from the Imperfect Playground," on Wednesday, Dec. 9, at 7 p.m.

Her book contains stories of misplaced toys and temper tantrums. With her experiences as a physical education teacher, Carr offers observations that will ring true with all mothers. This book offers a virtual high five to women for the gazillion things they manage to miraculously get done.

The program is free and open to the public. Call 423-7280 for more information.

'Holiday Fun' event to support 8th grade trip

On Sunday, Dec. 20, from noon to 4 p.m. at the Jamestown recreation center, the Lawn Avenue School eighth-grade class will host "A Sunday of Holiday Fun" for children in grades 1 through 5.

Cost for the event, which includes arts & crafts, gym time, quiet time and more, is $20 per child. Proceeds will help fund the eighth-grade class trip to Washington, D.C.

Registration begins in the Teen Center during the town tree lighting on Saturday, Dec. 5. Space is limited; reserve your spot early.
